Dear Parishioners,

When faced with difficulties and turmoil, the believer seeks out the Lord. But many today only resort to faith and prayer as a last resort when all other avenues are exhausted. Today's readings remind us that seeking God's presence should be our instinct in all matters, big and small.

In today's First Reading Elijah has made a long and tiring pilgrimage to Mount Horeb to consult God when his life is endangered by the evil Jezebel. Forty days and nights before reaching Horeb Elijah had worked a great sign showing the Lord was God, had overthrown a veritable army of false prophets, and witnessed a long, punitive drought that was imposed on the unfaithful Israelites ended. Despite this, his life was in danger, and it seemed the evil and infidelity in Israel was as strong and powerful as ever, spearheaded by Jezebel, who pledged to kill after he'd humiliated her prophets and pagan religion. He considered himself a failure and just wanted to sit beneath a tree and die. Yet the Lord's messenger urged him to make the long pilgrimage to Mount Horeb, the "mountain of God." Upon arrival, the Lord invites Elijah to explore his motivations for coming and then orders him to leave the cave in which he'd taken refuge and stand in his presence. Elijah knows the Lord is not to be found in the earthquake, the fire, or any other pyrotechnics or "special effects." He reacts at the quietest of noises, knowing the Lord is there. When we're faced with turmoil, we too need to ignore the pyrotechnics of the situation and seek a moment of quiet. That's where we'll find the Lord. It may take time and sacrifice, but the Lord will reveal himself.

In today's Second Reading Paul laments that Israel had received so much from the Lord but failed to recognize the Messiah when he came to them. The Messiah, their Savior, was their own flesh and blood, yet they didn't recognize him when he finally came. John in the prologue to his Gospel said, "He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his people did not accept him. But to those who did accept him, he gave power to become children of God" (John 1:10-12). Many Israelites did not recognize him as Messiah or as God. This should be a cautionary tale for us. We have so much in the Church and have inherited so much from the Jews, but we must always remember who is behind them: Our Lord. They are ways of connecting or reconnecting with him. We're adopted as sons and daughters of God through Christ. We receive glory through him, worship him, and follow his teachings and trust in his promises. Let's not squander the gifts by forgetting their Giver.

In today's Gospel the disciples were sent by Our Lord into what soon became stormy waters, and when he approached them, they thought they were doomed because they didn't recognize him. The disciples saw a ghost and thought it was a sign that they'd soon be ghosts too. After all the miracles Our Lord had already performed you'd think walking on water would not have been that shocking to them. Our Lord has to encourage them: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter takes a risk and takes a step out of the boat and into the storm because he believed Our Lord was there and would help him. He takes one step, two steps, three steps, then the wind starts to howl, and his feet start to sink in the water. Our Lord did not let him drown, and he will not let us drown either if we turn to him in faith.

Sincerely,
Rev.TK

God is Calling You

St Paul offers many different opportunities for returning our gifts of time and talent to God.
As stewards of God-given skills and abilities,
volunteering in a ministry or organization provides a way to thank God, share our faith with others and enhance our community.

Three important ones: Lectoring,
Minister of the Eucharist and Homebound Ministries are in need of assistance.

If you feel you are being called to one or more of these very satisfying ministries, please contact Deacon Gary Robinson at (361) 548-4152 or the office at (361) 937-3864 for more information.

Prayer To Avert Storms And Hurricanes

O GOD, MASTER OF THIS PASSING WORLD, HEAR THE HUMBLE VOICES OF YOUR CHILDREN. THE SEA OF GALILEE OBEYED YOUR ORDER AND RETURNED TO ITS FORMER QUIETUDE. WE LIVE IN THE SHADOW OF THE GULF OF MEXICO, A DANGER OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO CONTROL. O LOVING FATHER, SPARE US FROM STORMS AND HURRICANES THAT THREATEN US AND TURN OUR FEAR OF YOUR POWER INTO PRAISE OF YOUR GOODNESS. GRANT THIS THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, YOUR SON, WHO LIVES AND REIGNS WITH YOU AND THE HOLY SPIRIT, GOD FOREVER AND EVER. AMEN

SAINT MAXIMILIAN KOLBE (1894-1941)

August 14

Perhaps most well known for his martyrdom in a concentration camp where he offered to die in place of a father with a family, his story of sainthood began much earlier. He entered the minor seminary of the Conventual Franciscans in his native Poland at a young age and was ordained a priest at 24. He founded The Militia of the Immaculata to fight evil through the positive witness of a holy life. He also began a magazine to spread the good news and it eventually reached one million subscribers. All that he did was driven by his devotion to the Blessed Mother, for it was she who appeared to him holding in her hands one white and one red crown, asking him if he would like to have purity or martyrdom. He chose both and lived out his days dedicated to her and her son, until he died by starvation and lethal injection to save another man's life. Although we may not be called to physically die for another, there are many ways we can die to ourselves each day in love and service to others. Let us follow the example of Saint Maximilian Kolbe and be willing to lose our lives that we might find eternal life in heaven.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Two Steps Forward . . .

Why did Jesus walk on water to the disciples in the boat? Did he want to scare them? No, his first words to them were "Do not be afraid." While they were being tossed by wind and waves, he showed them that he was not affected by the storm. If they had had faith, they might have realized that if Jesus was safe, they would be, too. We too must make that leap of faith, especially when we are afraid.

Our growth in faith is not a steady progression. For every two steps forward, we may take one step back. For example, we become ill or wreck the car, and think that God has abandoned us. But isn't that a natural reaction?

It is natural to doubt God in times of trouble, but we are choosing to live in the supernatural when we become followers of Christ. Like Peter, we can lose our focus on the Lord. We see someone we love who is gravely sick. We make a serious mistake that gets us in trouble. Faith tells us that though apparently invisible, God is more real than anything we can see. Remember Jesus on the cross saying, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" The Father never abandoned his Son and God will never abandon us.

Tom Schmidt

"Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Matthew 14:27
