The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Do This in Remembering of Me

I come from a family of 8 siblings including myself, and I'm number 8. My four oldest siblings weren't at home with my parents when I was growing up. My father worked as a blacksmith at home, and my mother was the chief chef around the house. The oldest of all four youngest ones, she worked at home as a tailor. Her younger sister was an elementary teacher in school. My older brother left school in ninth grade and stayed home to work with my father. Every day, we came together at the dining table for a meal two times a day. No matter where we were or what we did, we were supposed to be back for lunch and dinner as a family twice a day. I have a good memory of growing up in a family where we came together twice a day at the dining table.

Recalling from the Scriptures, sitting at the dining table with Jesus on the last meal were the twelve apostles that he chose. At that last meal with his disciples, he instituted the Most Holy Eucharist which we are reminded to do in remembering of him. Saint Paul reminds us in today's second reading saying, "I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'" We are very blessed to be able to relive this most holy moment to share the Body and the Blood of Christ at the Eucharistic celebration each time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, the Holy Mass.

In the Eucharistic Prayer at every Holy Mass, a priest acts en persona Christi, in the Person of Christ, repeating the very words of Jesus when he holds the Body of Christ after the species of bread and wine are consecrated saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which will be given up for you." In the same way, the cup, he says, "Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of me." How beautiful and awesome it is to have the gift of the Eucharist, the Holy Mass, where we are invited to share the same meal that Jesus' disciples had with Jesus.

Every time we come together for a meal at home in the dining room, we are reminded of the last supper Jesus had with his disciples and the institution of the Most Holy Eucharist that he asked us to share in remembering him. You are invited to join our Eucharistic celebration every Saturday Vigil Mass at 5:00 PM and every Sunday at 8:30 AM, 11:00 AM, and 6:00 PM. Or better on weekdays as well. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, our Mass is at 8:00 AM, and on Wednesday is at 7:00 PM. Have you had time to come together for a meal as a family at least once a day? Love he left for his disciples at the last supper, would you spend time

MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

June 27

Think of countless T-shirts and bumper stickers: "I (big red heart) a city/pet/candidate/whatever." The heart is truly the universal symbol of love. Catholic tradition pictures Jesus' heart as living token of redemptive love. The Gospels describe Jesus' heart as "meek and humble" (Matthew 11:29), "full of compassion" (Matthew 9:36), a "fountain of living water" (John 7:37-39), of "blood [Eucharist] and water [Baptism]" (John 19:34), sacraments of the church's birth, new Eve from new Adam's side. The Sacred Heart devotion blossomed in the seventeenth century, countering an overemphasis on spiritual unworthiness and an increasing secular contempt for religion with loving affection for Jesus and encouragement of frequent Communion. The devotion's "apostle" was the humble nun Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-90), who envisioned Jesus, pointing to his burning, wounded heart and lamenting the world's indifference: "Behold the Heart that has loved people so and is loved so little in return!" This cherished Catholic devotion reminds us that, no matter how sophisticated the theology in our heads, discipleship is also, perhaps more so, a matter of the heart.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Give Them Some Food Yourselfes

The Gospel for this feast reminds me of what my aunt used to tell us when we would visit her and share a meal. Her favorite saying was, "If you don't get enough to eat, it's your own fault." Perhaps Jesus would say the same as he feeds us with his Body and Blood.

Some say that the multiplication of loaves was not done by breaking the laws of physics. Instead, they say that Jesus, when he began to share the little bread that he had, touched the hearts of all those who had brought food with them. They followed his example by sharing their food also—so much that there were twelve baskets left over.

Jesus came to change people's hearts, to show them God's love and how to love one another. The miracle of changing bread and wine into his Body and Blood is not just so we can feel good about having Jesus so near to us. It is meant to strengthen us to do our best as his disciples. As food and drink help us to keep on working, his Body and Blood help us to keep on loving.

When the disciples told Jesus about the hungry crowd, he told them, "Give them some food yourselves" (Luke 9:13). And one day they would. When they celebrated the Eucharist after Jesus' resurrection, they gave that spiritual food to the new followers of Christ. We continue that today. With Jesus' strength we can teach all people about the Father's love for them and how they can love each other.
