Dear Parishioners,

Today's readings remind us that the new life we've received in Christ, a new life we live even now as Christians, is not only due to Our Lord's sacrifice on the cross but is also a pattern of life that we should be following to engender new life.

In today's First Reading an influential woman receives the promise of a son after showing hospitality to the prophet Elisha because he was a man of God. This woman saw something of God in Elisha, and that something moved her to invite Elisha to dine. She extended her hospitality expecting nothing in return. However, she didn't limit her hospitality to just a few meals: she prepared a place for Elisha to stay when he was in town. Her hospitality and generosity were a sacrifice of her time and treasure for the sake of the Lord's mission. Serving Elisha was serving the Lord too. With no children on the horizon, she and her husband's line were destined to come to an end. Through her selfless sacrifice, she and her family received new life with the promise of a son.

In today's Second Reading Paul reminds us that it was sacrifice and death that brought us new life in Christ, and we must also sacrifice and die to ourselves so that Christ's life may take hold of us and engender a new life. We speak of the "old man," condemned to death due to original sin, as dying in baptism so that the new man, born in Christ through Baptism, may begin a new life. It doesn't matter how old or how young you were when you received baptism; you were an "old man" in sin and were born of water and the Spirit through Baptism, making the old man perish and his sins, original or otherwise, along with him. This death and new life take place spiritually and sacramentally through Baptism, but one day, just as it did for Christ, it will take place for real: death awaits us all someday, but if we believe in Christ, a new life awaits us too. Sin leads to death, so the more we deaden ourselves to sin, denying ourselves and sacrificing ourselves for others as Christ did, the more the new life in Christ can take hold of us and make our new lives flourish.

In today's Gospel, we see that hospitality to others is hospitality to Our Lord. The influential woman of today's First Reading, by helping Elisha, helped the Lord and was blessed for her hospitality. Even today, as Our Lord reminds us when we serve others, especially those who are serving the Lord, we are serving the Lord himself. He's also very good at hiding in the people you'd least expect. True hospitality is not stingy. A guest knows when the host is doing the minimum to satisfy some social obligation or curry favor: skimping on the food and drinks, keeping the event brief, etc. Our Lord today invites the disciples to examine why they are serving others: are they serving themselves in some way, trying to gain something for their service, or are they truly serving them because they serve the Lord? Our Lord warns us that we must take up our cross in serving others, and even lose our lives, but also promises that in the end, he will take care of us too if we focus on caring for him through caring for others.

Sincerely,
Rev.TK

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." Matthew 10:40

Prayer To Avert Storms And Hurricanes

O GOD, MASTER OF THIS PASSING WORLD, HEAR THE HUMBLE VOICES OF YOUR CHILDREN. THE SEA OF GALILEE OBEYED YOUR ORDER AND RETURNED TO ITS FORMER QUIETUDE. WE LIVE IN THE SHADOW OF THE GULF OF MEXICO, A DANGER OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO CONTROL. O LOVING FATHER, SPARE US FROM STORMS AND HURRICANES THAT THREATEN US AND TURN OUR FEAR OF YOUR POWER INTO PRAISE OF YOUR GOODNESS. GRANT THIS THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, YOUR SON, WHO LIVES AND REIGNS WITH YOU AND THE HOLY SPIRIT, GOD FOREVER AND EVER. AMEN

God is Calling You

St Paul offers many different opportunities for returning our gifts of time and talent to God. As stewards of God-given skills and abilities, volunteering in a ministry or organization provides a way to thank God, share our faith with others and enhance our community.

Three important ones: Lectoring, Minister of the Eucharist and Homebound Ministries are in need of assistance.

If you feel you are being called to one or more of these very satisfying ministries, please contact Deacon Gary Robinson at (361) 548-4152 or the office at (361) 937-3864 for more information.

SAINT JUNÍPERO SERRA (1713-1784) July 1

No one who has stood before the quiet majesty of Mission San Juan Capistrano, or the altogether different but no less lovely Mission Dolores in San Francisco, or any of the missions from San Diego to Sonoma can fail to bless the Franciscan padre who, while not founder of each, was inspiration for them all, Blessed Junípero Serra. Abandoning the comfortable academic life to which his doctorate in theology entitled him, Serra journeyed to the New World where his tireless traveling, dramatic preaching, and penitential austerity converted thousands of native peoples. Saving souls and celebrating the sacraments were Padre Serra's primary mission but not his only one. Education in letters and crafts, trades and agriculture transformed the people, while roads and irrigation systems transfigured the landscape. His more than thirty years of ministry were not free from conflict with authorities or without controversy in the retrospectively critical eye of history. But when John Paul II beatified him in 1988, he praised Padre Serra for assisting his converts to use their new faith to advance their true human development.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Who Do You Love

To be able to follow him, Jesus asks his disciples for total dedication. As an example, he tells us that to be worthy, we must love him more than we love our parents or children. If we see someone in our family straying from the faith, we try to help them return through our prayers, example, and encouragement.

Jesus then gives examples of three kinds of disciples. First come the prophets. These are people who have lived the faith and can teach others the wisdom they have learned. Second come the righteous, those who teach us by their example of a quiet life. Many good parents practice this kind of discipleship. Children may not listen to their parents' advice, but they still grow up with memories of how they lived. Finally come the "little ones." These people, like children, follow Jesus with great joy and love. They may be elderly or disabled. When we respect and value them, we can see Jesus in them. And every time we can experience Jesus through another person, it is a wonderful reward for a disciple.

All parishioners are invited to join us for Holy Hour in the Chapel every 1st and 3rd Monday of the month, from 7:00-8:00pm.

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." Matthew 10:40
