ALL SOULS

ALL SAINTS

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Matt 5:12

Dear Parishioners,

A particularly special feast day opens today with the Solemnity of All Saints. Do you know what the link is between this solemnity and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier? Let's find out!

As we shall see, the veneration of these saints today is very much akin to the honor given to the tombs of the unknown soldiers found in many countries of the world. We Catholics love our saints, and we love to celebrate holiness. But could we also admit that perhaps we focus a little too much on the saints with amazing lives and stories and forget about some of the less miraculous saints? When we read the Bible passages for today, they don't seem to point out anything spectacular or miraculous about the saints. It presents a very common form of sainthood.

The readings today tell us a few things about what it means to be a saint: First Reading: A Saint is a person who is in heaven before the Throne of God. Psalm: A Saint desires to see God. Second Reading: A Saint is a child of God. Gospel: A Saint is someone who lives the Beatitudes. Here is an important takeaway: on the day the Church talks about what it means to be a saint, she does not share with us Bible passages about terrible martyrdoms, harsh penances, or miraculous wonders. Instead, she tells us that to become a saint is a simpler process. We must long for God's face and practice the Beatitudes. In doing so, we will be in heaven as a child of God. And so, why are we thinking about the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier today? Let's glance over the first reading again. It is a passage from one of the last pages of Scripture: the Book of Revelation. As St. John (the author of the book) has a glimpse of heaven, he sees a multitude of saints, men and women that are praising and glorifying God. Our first clue is found in the countless multitude. The saints that the Catholic Church has recognized are far from a "countless multitude". In fact, the number is somewhere around 10,000-ish. And so, there must be many more hidden saints that have made their way to heaven without being officially recognized. Truly, anyone who is in heaven is a saint. How did this countless multitude get there? The Gospel gives us a hint: the Beatitudes.

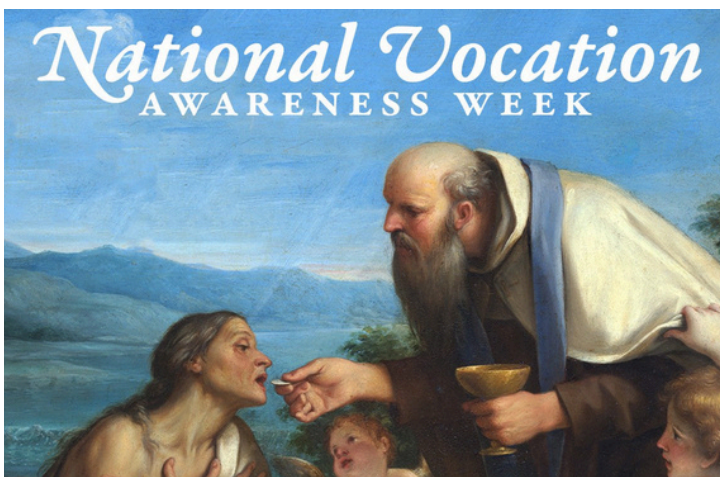

To become a saint is to live the Beatitudes. And this is another clue as to our link to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. A lot of people are quietly living the Beatitudes in their life. A lot of people who the world will never know or recognize are quietly living lives of real holiness and sainthood. Thus, there is potential for a "countless multitude" of saints. Becoming a saint is possible for everyone. To become a saint, you do not need to do any of these things: Be a monk, be a religious nun, be a martyr or missionary in a foreign land, perform miracles, spend nights in ceaseless prayer with no distractions.

Here are true examples of sainthood: the mother with young children who wishes she could spend more time with the things of God but who lovingly pours herself out for her husband and children, the elderly person who cares for their long-ailing spouse without complaints and with a heart full of love, the student who dedicates themselves to their studies with the goal of becoming the best person they can be to help the world, a tired father who must go to work for his family and does so quietly and lovingly as another "St. Joseph". Sainthood, while acknowledging the wild and crazy stories about some of our beloved saints, should look mostly very domestic and very close to home.

And here is the kicker: we all have met saints. How? Today we celebrate and honor those saints who don't have a name, just as we honor those soldiers who don't have a name. These saints don't have a name because they lived quiet and hidden lives. This "countless multitude" is possibly our grandmothers and grandfathers, friends and acquaintances who have passed on and who in life were simple and humble and loved their Catholic faith. Do you have someone in your life who has passed on to their eternal reward that you know in your heart is a saint? That unnamed person is who you are to honor and celebrate today!

Hopefully, if we all embrace our calling to be Christians in the world who live out the Beatitudes, when we pass on, there will be people remembering us on the Solemnity of All Saints!

Sincerely,
Rev.TK

A Heartfelt Thank You from Women's FIAT

"Let it be done to me according to your word." — Luke 1:38
Our very first Women's FIAT Retreat was more than we could have ever imagined! What began with a simple YES became a beautiful weekend of faith, friendship, healing, and God's amazing grace. To my incredible FIAT team, thank you for your servant hearts, your countless hours of preparation, and the love you poured into every detail. You helped bring this ministry to life, and I could not have asked for a more beautiful group of women to share this journey with. A special thank you to Danny and the Knights of Columbus for keeping everyone so wonderfully fed, and to Kim and her team for all the behind-the-scenes work that made this weekend possible. To our parish community, thank you for your prayers, encouragement, and especially for showing up to surround our women with love during our Circle of Light ceremony. Your presence was a beautiful reminder that we are one family in Christ. And most especially, thank you, Father Tomasz, for your YES. Thank you for believing in this ministry, opening the doors for us, and giving us the opportunity to help rebuild and strengthen our parish family through faith, fellowship, and love. This retreat may have ended, but what God has begun in our hearts and in our parish is only the beginning.
FIAT — Let it be done!

With a grateful heart,
Laura Truelove

God is Calling You

St Paul offers many different opportunities for returning our gifts of time and talent to God. As stewards of God-given skills and abilities, volunteering in a ministry or organization provides a way to thank God, share our faith with others and enhance our community.

Three important ones: Lectoring, Minister of the Eucharist and Homebound Ministries are in need of assistance.

If you feel you are being called to one or more of these very satisfying ministries. For more information, please contact Deacon Gary Robinson at (361) 548-4152 or the office at (361) 937-3864

Prayer To Avert Storms And Hurricanes

O GOD, MASTER OF THIS PASSING WORLD, HEAR THE HUMBLE VOICES OF YOUR CHILDREN. THE SEA OF GALILEE OBEYED YOUR ORDER AND RETURNED TO ITS FORMER QUIETUDE. WE LIVE IN THE SHADOW OF THE GULF, A DANGER OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO CONTROL. O LOVING FATHER, SPARE US FROM STORMS AND HURRICANES THAT THREATEN US AND TURN OUR FEAR OF YOUR POWER INTO PRAISE OF YOUR GOODNESS. GRANT THIS THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, YOUR SON, WHO LIVES AND REIGNS WITH YOU AND THE HOLY SPIRIT, GOD FOREVER AND EVER. AMEN

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:3

Saint Martin de Porres (1579-1639) November 3

An old illustration pictures Martin de Porres, finger to his lips—"Shhhh!"—as several mice peek out of sacristy vestment drawers, preparing to join a rodent "procession" following him out of church! Martin's rescue of these unwelcome "guests," and statues depicting him, broom in hand, feeding a dog, cat, bird, and mouse from the same dish symbolize his life and sanctity. Initially denied entrance by the Dominicans because of "mixed race" (Spanish father, Panamanian mother), Martin cherished society's marginalized. For him, menial tasks, lovingly done, were sacred. Great and lowly alike feasted on his charity. Enemies were reconciled by his "poor mulatto" (his self-description), kind even to those whose racism demeaned him. Apprenticed to a surgeon-barber in his youth—thus patron saint of hair stylists and public health providers—Martin dispensed healing and dignity to Lima's poorest, serving in them the Christ he adored for hours in the Blessed Sacrament. By the time he died, all Peru called him "Martin the Charitable," a title even those of us who will never be called "saint" might still aspire to.

—Peter Scagnelli

All Saints Know Your Saints

The Gospel for today's feast is always Matthew's account of the Beatitudes. At first they seem to favor the meek, the humble, the merciful. But then Jesus ends with some tough ones, aimed at those who are persecuted, insulted, and slandered. While it may sound negative, Jesus is actually giving us encouragement.

Jesus isn't telling us to make enemies, but not to be afraid if we do. An important part of our faith is the imperative to spread it. Some people do that by sharing their faith during their lunch break. Others teach formation classes to prospective Christians. So there are many ways to spread the faith, and many types of saints who are celebrated today.

Maybe today would be a good day to learn about your favorite saint. What made her special? How did he spread the faith? What persecution did they suffer? Perhaps you could talk about the saints with your children. What saint shares a name with your child? As St. John says in the second reading, we are all God's children (1 John 3:2). As we get to know our favorite saints, their lives can inspire us to face persecution or ridicule for our faith—or at least the courage to talk about our faith, and maybe change someone else's life.
