THE STONE THAT THE BUILDERS REJECTED HAS BECOME THE CORNERSTONE

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parishioners,

Today we begin World Mission Month! This is a graced time when the Church turns her gaze outward to the vast vineyard of the world.

This morning, we listened to the Gospel of Matthew and the parable of the wicked tenants. In this story, God the Father is depicted as the owner of the vineyard. The owner keeps sending his servants to the vineyard to collect the harvest. Over and over, he sends them.

Through this story, Jesus reveals the heart of God the Father. The Father keeps coming, keeps approaching, and keeps knocking on the door because he loves His vineyard. He will not abandon it.

The vineyard represents the dramatic history of salvation. The vineyard is God's people, the world he created and entrusted to humanity. The servants are the prophets, the messengers of the Old Covenant, sent again and again. The son is Jesus Christ Himself.

The parable culminates in a warning: the kingdom of God will be taken away from those who reject the messengers and given to a people that will produce its fruit.

Read through the lens of World Mission Month, this passage becomes a powerful meditation on what it means to be sent out to God's vineyard. God does not abandon the vineyard. Even when his gifts are rejected, even when his servants are persecuted, he keeps sending. Why? Because he cares about his vineyard. He loves it.

For us personally, no matter how often we fail God and fall into sin, he will never cease to pick us up again. This is the merciful logic of God: He forgives over and over because he loves. He does not write off the world after the first rejection. He comes again. He sends again.

This same divine persistence drives the entire missionary enterprise of the Church. World Mission Sunday, instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1926, stands as a living embodiment of this truth. Celebrated this year on October 18, it calls us here to renew our awareness of the missionary mandate.

We are all called to be part of this mission. The Risen Lord's final command before ascending to heaven echoes through the centuries: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 28:19). For two thousand years, the Church has labored at this task, yet we are far from finished. There is much more harvest from the Lord's vineyard that needs to be collected.

That is, there are many more souls to save!

At the end of the parable, Jesus turns the parable back upon us: we are the ones now entrusted with the vineyard. We are the people called to give fruit. The fruit God seeks is the salvation of souls.

This means: lives transformed by an encounter with Christ; communities built on the Gospel; a world gradually drawn into communion with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God continues to send his servants today. He sends Christian missionaries over and over again because He loves. From the first apostles to the countless men and women serving in remote villages, persecuted regions, and secularized cities, the Lord raises up witnesses who will spread the Good News. And today, the Lord is sending us!

Sincerely,
Rev.TK

God is Calling You

St Paul offers many different opportunities for returning our gifts of time and talent to God. As stewards of God-given skills and abilities, volunteering in a ministry or organization provides a way to thank God, share our faith with others and enhance our community.

Three important ones: Lectoring, Minister of the Eucharist and Homebound Ministries are in need of assistance.

If you feel you are being called to one or more of these very satisfying ministries. For more information, please contact

Prayer To Avert Storms And Hurricanes

O GOD, MASTER OF THIS PASSING WORLD, HEAR THE HUMBLE VOICES OF YOUR CHILDREN. THE SEA OF GALILEE OBEYED YOUR ORDER AND RETURNED TO ITS FORMER QUIETUDE. WE LIVE IN THE SHADOW OF THE GULF OF MEXICO, A DANGER OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO CONTROL. O LOVING FATHER, SPARE US FROM STORMS AND HURRICANES THAT THREATEN US AND TURN OUR FEAR OF YOUR POWER INTO PRAISE OF YOUR GOODNESS. GRANT THIS THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, YOUR SON, WHO LIVES AND REIGNS WITH YOU AND THE HOLY SPIRIT, GOD FOREVER AND EVER.
AMEN

Saint Francis of Assisi (1182-1226) October 4

When Franco Zeffirelli's Brother Sun, Sister Moon was released (1972), people were shocked by the movie's graphic nudity in the dramatic conversion scene. Son of a wealthy merchant, Francis' aimless adolescence ended when a failed military expedition led to his imprisonment and complete breakdown. Once home, Francis rediscovered God in the beauty of nature and the ugliness of human suffering, caring for lepers, praying in the little church of San Damiano, whose crucified Jesus he heard calling, "Repair my house, Francis, which is falling into ruins." Francis sold his possessions—and his father's—to fulfill this command. When his father objected, Francis disrobed: "I return the clothes, your name, and all you gave me: God alone is my Father now." Later, the pope would dream of a ragged friar stretching forth a single hand to prop up the crumbling papal Cathedral of Saint John Lateran. Francis indeed helped rebuild the universal Church, founding the Friars Minor (Franciscans), dying at a young forty-four, bearing the stigmata of the Christ whose living icon he remains—in the Church and far beyond it.

—Peter Scagnelli

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Where Are the Grapes?

Jesus' parable is a little different from the one in the first reading. Isaiah has the vineyard under good and faithful care, but still it produces wild grapes. In the Gospel, the vineyard presumably had a good harvest, but the workers refuse to give any of the grapes to the landowner. Where do I fit in?

Do I ignore all that God does to help me be a good disciple? Am I too busy to take time to pray or read the Bible? Do I hold onto grudges instead of forgiving and releasing them? Do I decline the invitations to go on a retreat? If any of these are true, I might be like the vineyard in the first reading, producing no fruit despite all the opportunities God has given me.

Or we may be the other side of the coin. We had our children baptized when they were babies. We gave them as good an example as we could, teaching them to love others and be generous with what they have. Yet they grew up and drifted away from the faith. Then we have to remember how patient God is with us, God's people who don't always produce the fruits of faith.

The tenants in the parable refer to those who would have Jesus crucified. God is patient with them. Look what happened to Saul, who persecuted many Christians before he became one himself. In our second reading he tells us to follow his example as he follows Christ. Then, he says, the peace of God will be with us, too (Philippians 4:6-9).
