Dear Parishioners,

Today, we celebrate World Mission Sunday. World Mission Sunday was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1926, and is always celebrated on the second-to-last Sunday of October.

This is the Catholic Church's only universal collection mandated in canon law (Canon 791). It is a powerful reminder of our shared responsibility to proclaim the Gospel to all nations. It is a day when Catholics around the world unite in prayer and solidarity to support the missionary work of the Church.

We are all called to be a part of this mission work.

In his last words before ascending to heaven, Jesus told us, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 28:19), and for 2,000 years the Church has been at work in this task. And we are far from finished!

If we think about it, two-thirds of the people alive — 5.5 out of 8.1 billion — still have no relationship with Christ or his Church. Bringing people to Jesus is the work of the Church, and all of us together have a part to play. The Gospel reading brings everything into sharpest focus.

Jesus says, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." And if these ancient coins once bore Caesar's image, then every baptized Christian bears the image of Christ. From early Christian times, we have understood our baptism as a time when we are "marked" as belonging to Christ. This is part of the symbolism of the sacred chrism that anoints our foreheads with the sign or "mark" of Christ: the cross.

Belonging to Christ is the greatest blessing a person can receive in life. Our baptismal day is the greatest day of our lives, as we become adoptive children of God. Nothing can really compare to that!

And so, helping as many people of the world to receive the image of Christ on their souls, and to belong to Jesus, is a task that we should all consider as central and paramount to our lives. Since we belong to Christ, and we bear his image on our souls, our faith cannot remain something private or passive. The Gospel is meant to move through us and into the world, much like the Spirit on Pentecost, which filled the disciples, who then went out into the world. The question is not only whether we believe the Gospel, but whether others can see its power at work in us—through our choices, our sacrifices, our compassion, and our witness. That is part of what we celebrate on World Mission Sunday.

Today, the Church reminds us that the mission of Christ extends far beyond our own parish or neighborhood.

At this very moment, throughout the world, the Gospel is being preached in poor villages, crowded cities, refugee camps, mission territories, hospitals, schools, and prisons. In some places, the Church is flourishing. In those places where the Church is flourishing, those Christians are called to help those places where the Church barely exists, or where she is too young, too poor or too persecuted to support herself.

Sincerely,
Rev.TK

O GOD, MASTER OF THIS PASSING WORLD, HEAR THE HUMBLE VOICES OF YOUR CHILDREN. THE SEA OF GALILEE OBEYED YOUR ORDER AND RETURNED TO ITS FORMER QUIETUDE. WE LIVE IN THE SHADOW OF THE GULF OF MEXICO, A DANGER OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO CONTROL. O LOVING FATHER, SPARE US FROM STORMS AND HURRICANES THAT THREATEN US AND TURN OUR FEAR OF YOUR POWER INTO PRAISE OF YOUR GOODNESS. GRANT THIS THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, YOUR SON, WHO LIVES AND REIGNS WITH YOU AND THE HOLY SPIRIT, GOD FOREVER AND EVER.

Saints Isaac Jogues (1560-1646) and John de Brébeuf (1593-1649) and their companions October 19

Their mission was to New France, but these missionaries found in present day New York State and the Province of Ontario a world wildly different from the homes they left behind. Six Jesuit priests, Fathers Isaac Jogues, John de Brébeuf, Anthony Daniel, Gabriel Lalemant, Charles Garnier, and Noel Chabanel—and Jesuit lay volunteers Rene Goupil and John Lalande—shared the gospel with the Native Americans they met, in languages they painstakingly learned, and through images they creatively adapted to the indigenous cultures (for example, John de Brébeuf's "Twas in the Moon of Wintertime: the Huron Carol"). But their evangelization was caught up in turmoil beyond their control: a smallpox epidemic, battles between French and English trading interests—the traders united only by their willingness to exploit the Native Americans—and conflict among the tribes themselves, Huron, Mohawk, Iroquois. The missionaries' perseverance despite exhausting hardships, their steadfast courage in facing unspeakable tortures, and undaunted love even for those who martyred them, bore fruit, immediately in Kateri Tekakwitha's sanctity, eventually in the Catholicism that still flourishes in the United States and Canada.

—Peter Scagnelli

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time "He Alone Is Lord"

In the scriptures, being anointed usually meant you were a prophet or king of Israel. So why is Cyrus given that title? Cyrus was king of Persia when the Babylonians held the people of Israel captive. God used him to defeat the Babylonians and eventually bring the Israelites back to their homes.

One thing this tells us is that God can work through anyone, not just saints and religious. Any time someone does a good deed, God is behind it. Just as God used Cyrus to free the Israelites from their Babylonian captivity, God can use governments to protect the poor, to help rebuild after disasters, or to defend freedom.

In that sense, we can understand what Jesus says about payment to Caesar and to God. Since everything belongs to God, that should be our first allegiance. But when God works through governments, we can give some support to them, by such activities as voting or paying taxes. Let us ask God to work through us also, helping us to proclaim that God alone is Lord.

—Tom Schmidt
