TRADITION IS ALIVE AND WELL in Houston's West University. A member of the Southern Living Custom Builder Program since 2009, Stone Acorn Builders, L.P. earns the 2015 Builder Member of the Year award for its successful presentation of a Southern Living Custom Builder Program Showcase Home built in the community. The sister-brother team Sarah Lavine-Kass and Benjamin Lavine have been building quality homes in the Houston market since 1999. Classic Southern styling adorns the home's interior and exterior with details such as intricate trimwork, limestone skirting, indoor and outdoor fireplaces, front and rear porches. The house marries regional charm and design ingenuity. "We strive to build a home that inspires you and conveys a casual yet elegant lifestyle," says Sarah. "As members of the Southern Living Custom Builder Program, we are proud to be recognized by a magazine that represents what we stand for as a family company: quality construction and classic designs that withstand the test of time."

The Southern Living Custom Builder Program is an invitation-only network of nearly 100 builders across the South. Each member is hand-selected for their outstanding reputation and quality.
