LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

Happy October, everyone! With the advent of 'spooky season,' you may notice a few changes to the front window as you drive or walk by, and some extra decorating going on inside as well. Of course, as beautiful as the fall foliage is right now, it's kind of hard to get into any kind of spooky or scary state of mind. Ahh, that sweet smell of Autumn!
Homeschooling families, we need your opinions. We recognize that home education is a lot easier with support, and that local, free, lending libraries are- or can be- part of that support. What would you like to see here at the Greenwood Reading Center, that will increase the quality and ease of educating your family? We invite you to stop in (always!) phone, or email us with your input. Our contact info is in the FAQ's.
New Book spotlight: Dogs and Monsters by Mark Haddon. If you are interested in stories from ancient, Greco-Roman mythologies, then this book is for you! Haddon puts a modern spin on a series of ancient tales, showcasing very real, human emotions. Given the 'monstrous' quality of some of these tales (like the Minotaur,) this book is a good one for kicking off the spooky season, especially if you like horror movies.
FAQs: Our hours are Monday 2:00-7:00pm, Tuesday and Friday 9:00am to 2:00pm, Wednesday 11:00am to 4:00pm. Homework Help-desk is on Mondays. We have free internet use via Wi-Fi or public-use computers, fax capabilities and can make copies for a small charge. Yes, you can find us on Facebook! Light refreshments will be available at 6:30. That will mark the close of the survey phase. The Planning Board will then collate and analyze the results and begin working them into a cohesive plan.

A Good Attitude

The dictionary defines “attitude” as a manner of acting that shows one’s inward thoughts and feelings. Each of us has an attitude, and the way we project ourselves to others helps shape our character and define our personality. A person’s attitude and individuality are developed over the years as a result of all the positive and negative situations they encounter. A person with a good attitude is usually more congenial, friendly and pleasant with others. They are well liked, easier to get along with and less anxious. In general, people just seem to enjoy their company. A more negative person with a poor attitude seems to worry more, is often uneasy and frets about things that may happen in the future. Changing one’s attitude or personality is difficult. However, all things are possible with God. The Bible tells us that we should have the attitude of Christ Jesus (Philippians 2:5). As humans, we have all come short of His glory. Although it is not easy to always have a good attitude, God wants us to keep trying to be the best person we can be.

When a man’s ways please the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. R.S.V. Proverbs 16:7
