LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

Merry Christmas! Whether or not you feel merry, surely you can agree that this has been about the 'whitest' Christmas we've seen in a while? Such a snow, we've not seen in several years, at least! We at the Greenwood Reading Center have been doing our best to keep our sidewalks shoveled and clear of ice. If you are walking your pets, and see the blue 'pebbles' or haze in the snow, please know that we've chosen a pet-safe deicing product for the sidewalks. We would never want anyone to feel wary of walking past the library, nor do we wish any harm on our four-legged neighbors, tame or otherwise!

Large Print fans, you may have already noticed a small slip of paper inside the front cover of your library books. We've started our Large Print Survey! If you would be so kind as to answer the three questions and tuck it inside the back pocket of your library book, we would appreciate it! In furtherance of the grant we were awarded to help increase the number of Large Print and Graphic Novels in our collection, we need to gather a bit of data; no personal information required!

Speaking of Graphic Novels, did you know that not all books are created the same? Some of our new titles open toward the right instead of toward the left, making the book feel 'backward'. This is because these books are written in the original, Japanese 'Manga' format. Isn't that neat? If you are a fan of Graphic Novels, especially Manga, we'd appreciate hearing which series' you would enjoy seeing more of in our collections.

Don't forget to stop in on New Year's Eve and congratulate Mrs. Hink on her retirement!

FAQs: Our hours are Monday 2:00-7:00pm, Tuesday 1:00-6:00, Wednesday 11:00am to 4:00pm, and Friday 9:00am to 2:00pm. Home-work Helpdesk available on Mondays and Tuesdays. We have free internet use via Wi-Fi or public-use computers, fax capabilities and can make copies for a small charge. Yes, you can find us on Facebook! During this holiday season, a time of joy for most of us, our thoughts turn to the families of our community who are facing their first Christmas without someone they loved.

We know many of them, and maybe you do too. Or you may remember a year when you yourself dreaded the holidays because a death during the year had broken your family circle.

As funeral service professionals, we know that grief is especially hard to bear during the holidays. The thoughtful gesture of a compassionate friend can mean a lot to a bereaved individual or family. Caring about someone, and letting them know you care, is the essence of the Christmas spirit.

As we celebrate this season of gratitude, the Middletown Historical Society extends heartfelt thanks to our members for their generous sponsorship throughout the past year. Your support has been vital in preserving the rich heritage of our community.

Middletown once comprised portions of the surrounding townships of Addison, Cameron, Jasper, Rathbone, Thurston, Tuscarora, and Woodhull. Together, we safeguard not only Middletown's history but also the stories and genealogies of these neighboring towns. Your commitment ensures that future generations can explore and appreciate the legacy that binds us all.

God's Greatest Gift

You'll be getting some gifts this Christmas season, and when you open those brightly wrapped packages there are two things you don't want to say.
"How much do I owe you?" or "I don't want it."

Tragically, that's how too many people - maybe you
- respond to God's greatest gift to them. The Bible says, "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord" Roman 6:23.
God says going to heaven is a gift, not something we can earn, no matter how good we are. We earn hell with our sin. We can only get to heaven by reaching out and taking the gift Jesus paid for when He paid our sin bill on the cross.

The gift God sent that first Christmas--the gift of eternal life Jesus paid for with His life--is within your reach. If you're ready to begin this relationship with Jesus, someone's waiting to talk with you.

Christmas is a celebration of God’s great gift to humanity: The gift of God Himself, coming to us in human form as a servant under the humblest circumstances. We do well to recall just how lowly were the circumstances surrounding Jesus’ birth. Mary was a young woman-probably no more than 15 or 16 years old, engaged to be married when she found herself “with child”. Upon discovering this, her fiance Joseph resolved to break off the engagement. But following the counsel of a heavenly messenger, Joseph remained with her. Then, at the time of the child’s birth, the couple had to travel to Bethlehem to comply with the census. With no room at the inn, Mary was forced to give birth in the open fields, and the baby was laid in a manger, which is a feeding trough for livestock. In short, God emptied Himself of His divinity and became a helpless baby who was born being exposed to the elements, utterly dependent upon the care of his destitute mother and father. There is a great lesson to be learned here, but it is one that is too easily forgotten. God did not come to teach us how to be gods, or great kings and queens puffed up with pride and surrounded by luxuries and servants. He came to teach us to be humble servants who would love and help each other, even under the worst circumstances. Behold a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son...K.J.V. Matthew 1:23.
