LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

Yay, it's April! April showers bring May flowers, but what do Mayflowers bring? Pilgrims! LOL sorry, couldn't resist the joke. The other nice thing about April showers though, is that they are generally not snow showers.

We have new hours now! Easier to remember and more convenient for everyone; Mondays and Tuesdays we're open from 2pm until 7pm. Wednesdays and Fridays, we're open from noon until 5pm.

We had a grand time with our March Mystery Meal. If you missed the Rubber Ducky Fashion Show, there are pics on Facebook and the website. You won't want to miss the April Mystery Meal, A Kaleidoscope of Color.

Can't wait until noon on April 23 for the next Mystery Meal? You can join us at the library for the GRC Coffee Bar every Monday and Tuesday from 5pm until 7pm. Our society has a way of isolating people until loneliness in a sea of people becomes a real thing. Beat the blues by taking time to hang out and chat with friends. There will be a variety of hot beverages and fun snacks to choose from because food always helps season the conversation. Everything is available for a donation, so don't let empty pockets keep you away!

Our next board meeting is right around the corner! It will be held on Thursday, April 9th, at 2:00pm in the Community of Christ Church fellowship hall. As always, this meeting is open to the public and everyone is welcome. There will be coffee, because no one does their best thinking on an empty stomach.

FAQs: Our hours are Monday & Tuesday 2:00-7:00pm, and Wednesday & Friday 12:00pm to 5:00pm. GRC Coffee Bar on Mondays and Tuesdays. (3/31/26) We are now in the middle of Holy Week. It started on Palm Sunday, which represents Jesus riding into Jerusalem on a donkey. People waved palm branches and yelled, "Hallelujah." Thursday is Maundy Thursday commemorating Jesus' last supper with His disciples. Friday is Good Friday to commemorate Jesus' crucifixion on the cross. That leads up to Easter Sunday commemorating our Savior's resurrection. Jesus did that because He loves us so much to die for us. JESUS IS ALIVE!!! Amen...

Thank You

The Peoples family wishes to express our heartfelt gratitude to our family, friends, and this wonderful community for the overwhelming love and support shown during our time of grief.

We were deeply touched by those who joined us to celebrate Ken's life. Your presence meant more than words can say. The beautiful flowers, thoughtful cards, and kind messages brought us comfort during the hardest of days, and we are so grateful for each and every one.

To those who showed up at our door with meals, ran errands, and took care of us in ways both big and small — your generosity and compassion carried us through. We are so blessed to be surrounded by such caring people.

A special thank you to Addison fire and ambulance for responding and Frans Landing and Indian Hills for providing the celebration of life dinner.

This community has always been special to us, and in our grief, you reminded us why. With love and gratitude,

— The Peoples Family

Thank You

To my family and friends for all the cards, flowers, phone calls and gifts I recieved for my 80th birthday.

“To All Policemen” Easter Greetings

As we approach Easter, may we ask God to clean all the black marks in our souls; and remake them into perfect images of Himself by Easter. Policemen are a noble and honorable profession, so let us take this renewed life in us to the people with love, peace, and our care. I pray for you often that these people will shine with faces of love and honor to all of you. (Probably not quite as much as my love for all of you). Thanks be to God for the loveable, kind police.
 Love and Peace

Marlene (Knapp) Hillman

Marlene (Knapp) Hillman, a deeply loved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend, peacefully crossed over on March 20, 2026, at the age of 74. Surrounded by the family she cherished, she was reunited with her beloved husband and soulmate, Bill.

Born on January 17, 1952, in Corning, New York, to Warren and Irmalee (Brion) Knapp, Marlene grew up forming lifelong friendships and graduated from Addison Central School in 1970. From an early age, she carried a curiosity about the world and a creativity that would shape her entire life.

Marlene was a dreamer, an artist, and a lifelong learner. She found wonder in everything—watching birds, looking up at the night sky, hosting solar eclipse gatherings, and imagining what might exist beyond our world. She was always asking questions, always learning, always seeing beauty where others might not.

She built a career as a chemical technician at Corning Incorporated after earning her associate degree from Corning Community College. She took great pride in her work and earned recognition for it, fascinated by the science and beauty of glass—something that perfectly reflected both her analytical mind and artistic spirit.

Marlene's true masterpiece was the life she created with her family. She traveled across the country and around the world with her husband, Bill, and their children, often bringing nieces and nephews along for the ride. Whether exploring Yellowstone or visiting southern beaches, she turned every trip into an adventure and every moment into a memory.

Her creativity knew no bounds. She gardened, raised angora goats, worked with stained glass, sewed, crocheted, made macrame, and baked cakes that brought joy to every celebration. Above all, she painted. Through her art, she shared how she saw the world—with beauty, whimsy, and heart. She loved attending art classes with her sister Peggy and friends, always growing and creating, and she took special joy in teaching her granddaughters to paint—passing on her love of art one brushstroke at a time.

Marlene was the person you could count on. Strong, compassionate, and endlessly supportive, she listened and loved without limits. She had a special gift for bringing people together, especially during the holidays. Birthdays, Thanksgiving, and Easter were never just gatherings—they were events filled with laughter, love, and her unforgettable Easter egg hunts that her family will cherish forever.

She is reunited with her beloved husband and soulmate, Bill Hillman; her parents, Warren and Irmalee (Brion) Knapp; her brothers, Peter Knapp and Dennis Knapp; and her grandson, Chad Bates.

She leaves behind a family who will carry her love forward: her children, Kevin (Troy Preston) Hillman, Daniel Hillman, Peggy Hillman, Nicole (James) Lewis, and Sarah (Terry Scotchmer) Hillman; her treasured grandchildren, Joshua Folden, Brandon Hillman, Brooke Enderle, Samantha Lewis, Morgan Lewis McGregor, Olivia Scotchmer, Anna Janel Scotchmer, Allison Lewis, Lilliana Scotchmer, and James Hillman Preston; and many great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her siblings, Daisy (Bob) Casebeer, John Knapp, Marjorie (Don) Kloeber, Colleen (Glen) Terwilliger, Peggy (Perry) Doan, and Theodore (Debbie) Knapp; along with a wide circle of extended family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in her memory to ACT N DO, 7 Steuben Street, Addison, NY 14801, or to Pawz and Purz Animal Rescue, P.O. Box 466, Painted Post, NY 14870.

A celebration of Marlene's life was held on Saturday, March 28, 2026, at Christ Episcopal Church, 33 East First Street, Corning, New York. Visitation began at 3:00 p.m., followed by the funeral service at 4:00 p.m., with a reception afterward. The service was officiated by the Very Rev. Troy Preston. All were invited to gather in remembrance of her warmth, her devotion to family, and the many ways she made every gathering feel special.

Marlene's legacy is one of creativity, curiosity, strength, and love. She taught those around her to see the beauty in the world, to keep learning, and to hold family close. She will be missed beyond words, but her spirit lives on in the art she created, the memories she gave, and the love she shared so freely.

John M. Martini

John M. Martini, 61, passed away unexpectedly in Florida on March 21, 2026. John was born on January 19, 1965, in Corning, New York, to Nello and Yvonne (Steinmetz) Martini.

John's presence was one that people were naturally drawn to. His charisma, warmth, and carefree spirit made him unforgettable to those who had the privilege of knowing him. He carried a joyful spirit, often sharing laughter and bringing smiles to those around him. He loved his family, cherished his friends, valued his colleagues, and treated every customer with kindness. He believed in showing up for others, and he did so without hesitation.

John was a hardworking and dedicated professional, especially when it came to his career. He began his journey with Wegmans in his early twenties, with an appreciation for the craft of meat preparation and cooking. His commitment and leadership led him to become the meat department manager, a role he held until his retirement in April 2025. Over 38 years, 7 months, and 17 days, John proudly served Wegmans customers in the Corning community.

John will be remembered for the love he had for his family and friends. His children and grandchildren will always cherish his presence and their special bond. He enjoyed spending time with those closest to him and will be deeply missed by all who knew him. John enjoyed the outdoors, especially hunting in the quiet of the wilderness. He also loved traveling and riding his Harley, embracing both adventure and freedom. Above all, he cherished gathering with family and friends – sharing good food, good drinks, and good times.

John is survived by his two loving children, Michael Martini of Texas and Beckie (Michael) Wooldridge of Corning; his five grandchildren, Dakota Coughlin, Blaze Martini, Lucy Martini, Phoebe Wooldridge, and Malkolm Wooldridge; his siblings, Douglas Martini of Florida and Laura (Paul) Ferratella of Painted Post; his nephews, Rocky (Adrienne) Martini of Victor, NY, Louis Ferratella, and Paul Ferratella; and his great-niece, Lennon Martini.

In addition to his parents, John was predeceased by his sister-in-law, Jackie Martini, and his grandparents, Lydia and Nello Martini Sr.

Family and friends were invited to call at Flint Funeral Home, 10 Wall Street, Addison, NY on Tuesday, March 31, 2026 from 2:00pm - 4:00pm and 6:00pm - 8:00pm. A funeral service was held at the funeral home on Wednesday at 11:00am with Rev. Troy Preston officiating.

In lieu of flowers those wishing to make donations in memory of John can do so to National Park Foundation, Attn: Gift Processing P.O. Box 17394 Baltimore, MD 21298-9450. Words of comfort may be offered at www.FlintFuneralhome.com

Bernice Adell Van Gorden

Bernice Adell Van Gorden, 98, of Woodhull NY, passed away at the Athens Health and Rehab Center in Athens PA on March 25, 2026.

Born April 28, 1927, to Ernest and Florence (Young) Baker in Osceola PA, she was the second of seven children. In her younger years, she worked in a variety of places, and at just 16 years old she began work at Corning Glass during World War 2.

After the war, she worked at the Glove Factory in Elkland PA, where she met her future husband, Robert. He had just returned home from the Air Force and lived up the street from the factory. They were married on February 15, 1947, and had many happy years until Robert's passing on September 10, 1989. After their marriage, Bernice became a homemaker, second mom, and grandmother to many. She will be remembered for being a hard worker and for her cooking, especially her spaghetti.

Besides her husband and parents, Bernice is predeceased by her brothers George and James Baker, sisters Ann Hall, Wineta Baker, Joyce Davis, and grandson Justin Graves.

According to Bernices' wishes there will be no services. She loved flowers and books.

The family asks that you plant a flower or donate to your local library in her memory.

Arrangements are with the H.P. Smith & Son Inc., Funeral Home in Woodhull NY.

Easter Sunday

The Easter season is a time of awakening and rebirth. Spring is in the air, and trees and plants are budding, making everything seem to come alive again for this special holiday. Young children, who may not fully understand the true meaning of Easter, look forward to jelly beans and Easter baskets. Easter is a good time for reflection and nurturing of our faith, and we all should be aware of how good God is to us. Attending church services and enjoying the fellowship of family and friends is important during the Easter season. Just as we may give Easter gifts to our children, God has given a special gift to us. God loves us so much that he gave his only begotten son to die on the cross and to rise again on Easter so that we may have eternal life. The Son of Man must be handed over to sinful men, be crucified, and three days later rise to life.
