Happy Father's Day!

Sunday, June 15th

Father's Day in the United States

is on the third Sunday of June.

It celebrates the contribution that fathers and father figures make for their children's lives.

LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

This weekend, we're celebrating two very important parts of our culture here in the United States; Flag Day on Saturday, and Father's Day on Sunday. Sunday is also important for another reason, but only if you want to stop in and wish a certain library aide a happy birthday! While Flag Day is not an official, federal holiday (sorry, no day off on that one, folks!) it's important to recognize the importance of the banner that signifies our great country. First adopted in 1777, the Stars and Stripes has changed only in the number of stars gracing her blue field. The holiday is also a prime example of the slow moving nature of our bureaucracy. First proposed in 1865, it wasn't until 1919 that the president designated Flag Day as June 14, and it wasn't until 1949 that Congress declared that day as official.

In contrast, it took less than fifty years for congress to designate the third Sunday in June as Father's Day, from the time it was first proposed in 1910. Dads matter! While this column cannot possibly cover all the ways that fathers are important in the home we recognize that without them, the family is far worse off. Two books in our window celebrating dads: Higher, Higher! by Leslie Patricelli shows a dad pushing his daughter on the swing and The Coolest Beard by Betty Tekle shows the sweet nature of a father-son relationship, and how that relationship- seeing dad set the example of true manliness- helps a little boy want to grow up into a worthwhile person, too.

Our next library board meeting will be held on June 16 at 7:00pm here at the Reading Center. All are welcome to attend- just as with our Mystery Meal on the 26th at noon!

FAQs: Our hours are Monday 2:00-7:00pm, Tuesday and Friday 9:00am to 2:00pm, Wednesday 11:00am to 4:00pm. Homework Helpdesk is on Mondays. We have free internet use via Wi-Fi or public-use computers, fax capabilities and can make copies for a small charge. Yes, you can find us on Facebook! Submitted by Sharon Calkins
(6/12/25) When Abraham put his son, Isaac, on the altar for a sacrifice, was it a coincidence or God speaking when a ram was in the brush? When you decide to not go with friends and they end up in a fatal accident, was it coincidence or was God protecting you? I believe that God works in mysterious ways that we don’t understand. Think about Joseph being sold out of jealousy. Look where God led him. God knows the past, present and the future and it’s not up to us to know.

Claudette D. Buman

Claudette D. Buman, 69, of Atlanta, NY, passed away suddenly at a friend’s home in Rochester on June 3, 2025.

Born May 15, 1956, to the late George and Ida Irma (Baker) Willis, Claudette was known for her love of crafting, crochet and singing. She was a loyal servant of God and took comfort in his words and prayers. She loved and enjoyed being a part of the church and congregation.

Claudette was always very stubborn and strong-willed but still managed to find positive goals and achievements to keep hope for the future. Though our hearts ache, we take comfort in knowing she is at peace. Her kindness, love and unwavering spirit will forever be in the memories of those who knew her. We only truly understand death after it has placed its hands on someone we love. We chose not to lose our mother, but to gain an angel. In our hearts, minds and lives, she is still completely present to this day - as compassionate and stubborn as ever. We know for certain that we never truly lose the people we love, even in death. She continues to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Her life leaves an imprint in our memories, and we take comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by sharing her love.

Surviving Claudette is her daughters, Charlene Purcell of Charleston, SC, Kimberly McCollum (Brian Foulds) of Coal Township PA, Rebekah Hayes (Leonard Waggoner) of Atlanta, NY, Susan Braley (Kyle Williams) of Hornell, NY; grandchildren, Andrew, Trevor, Dylan, Ethan, Noah, Zachery, Domanic, Gracie, Madelyn, Tylor, Austin, Vincent, Chantel, Treah, David, Ethan, Ruby; brothers, Michael Reese, Mathew Willis, Nathan, Willis; sister, Anna Guion.

Besides her parents, Claudette is predeceased by her brothers Tim and Terry Willis, and her stepmother Rose Willis.

A funeral was held at the Woodhull Cemetery Chapel, St. Rte. 417, on Tuesday, June 10 at 6pm. Arrangements are with the H.P. Smith & Son Inc., Funeral Home in Woodhull, NY.

Dale R. Myers

Dale R. Myers, 72, of Troupsburg, NY, went to meet his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on Sunday, June 8, 2025 in his home and surrounded by his loving family. He often said, “it’s not goodbye, it’s I’ll see you later.”

Born May 27, 1953, in Lancaster, PA, he was the son of Reuben D. and Marian F. Barr Myers.

On May 14, 1977, in Washingtonville, PA, he married Patricia L. “Trish” Pulsifer, who survives.

Dale owned and operated a dairy farm in Milton, PA in partnership with his father and brother. He later owned and operated a dairy farm with his wife in Woodhull, NY and was a self-employed logger. He owned and raced Sulky racehorses at Pocono Downs in Wilkes-Barre, PA. He was employed by Turbotville Block Company, Winston Modular Homes in Danville, PA, Agri-King in Potter County, PA, Carl Emery Logging in Mifflinburg, PA, Trathon Logging in York, PA, and Moretrench with Operating Engineers Local #158, retiring in 2019. Dale was a member of JSM Ministries in Louisiana and a former member of West Union Mennonite Church. Dale had a special love for his hunting dogs and work horses. He spent countless hours hunting for coon, bear, coyote, turkey, and deer with trusted dogs by his side, including his best buddy, Jim Bob. He loved to teach his grandchildren how to hunt. Dale could tell the most enthusiastic stories of a hunt with hand gestures and sound effects. While Dale loved to hunt, his greatest love was his love for God and his family. He took opportunity with friends and family to spread the word of God’s love and salvation. He valued and loved those around him so much that he wanted to ensure their places in Heaven.

Surviving besides his wife, Trish, are: four children, Prudence (Tariq) Moore of Williamsport, PA, Stephen Myers of Watsontown, PA, Courtney Kitka of Dansville, NY, and Elizabeth (Jeremy) Lewis of Zephyrhills, FL; eight grandchildren, Tariq Moore, Jr., Kyrie Moore, Dylan Myers, Gabrielle (Eric) Oman, Caleb Kitka, Noah Lewis, Cole Lewis, and Coen Lewis; a great-granddaughter, Sloane Oman; a sister, Judy (Kenneth) Leaman of Willow Street, PA; a brother, Jeffrey (Judy) Myers of New Castle, PA; nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents.

Friends may call at West Union Mennonite Church, 1347 County Route 84, Rexville, NY 14877 on Saturday, June 14, 2024 from 9:00 – 11:00 AM, with a Memorial Service following at 11:00 AM. Rev. Ed Babcock and Rev. Robert Walters will co-officiate. Memorials may be made to West Union Mennonite Church, 1347 County Route 84, Rexville, NY 14877.

Dear Editor

This year the Town of Troupsburg primaries are scheduled for June 24th. There are three offices up for vote: Town Supervisor - Abram Weeks and Tonya Tompkins and two Town Councilman - Paula Brewer, Ken LeCrone and Christopher Jordan. Tonya Tompkins has served one term as the Town Supervisor and I had the privilege of serving as her Deputy Supervisor for one year. I can tell you from my conversations with her over that year that she sincerely has the interests of the taxpayers of this town in mind in all that she does. While she is certainly not a polished politician (she is a farmer and bus driver) and has stumbled a bit getting used to a public office, a vote for Tonya will definitely be a positive thing for our town.

Sincerely,
Edward White

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to notify you that as of 5/31/2025 the Troupsburg Volunteer Fire Department Ambulance Corps has ceased operation. The Troupsburg VFD Ambulance Corps service area will be covered by the County of Steuben and neighboring agencies listed within the mutual aid agreement.

The Father’s Role

The father’s role has changed over the past few decades and the good father in today’s society must wear many hats. We no longer think of today’s family as a father that just works outside the home an the mother as the one who manages the home responsibilities and the children. Today, many parents both work outside of the home, and the father that shares the home chores and responsibilities wins the love and admiration of his family. A father requires nothing more from his children than their love, respect and their honest effort to be the best that they can be. Father’s teach by their example, and qualities such as kindness, honesty, integrity and love of God and family, can all be passed down to their children. The love that fathers have for their children is a gift from God, and fathers who express their love to their children are double blessed when they hear their children say in return, “I love you too, Dad.” As kind as a father is to his children, so kind is the Lord to those who honor him.
