Graduation Day

Graduation Day should be a time of celebration and special praise. When one receives a diploma, it signifies that this person, through discipline and study, has completed another phase of life. He or she is ready for the next stage, be it additional education or entering the work force. The person has completed his training may display his diploma to signify that he is qualified to perform a service. However, it is not the diploma that keeps clients coming back, but the quality of service performed. Graduates should realize that the knowledge and skill they have learned is more important than the certificate. Likewise, a person's religious affiliation is not what pleases God, it's what's in the person's heart. Those who profess to love God, should display this by their actions. He is loving and kind and rewards each of us according to the work we do for Him. -The Living Bible Psalm 62:12

Mary E. Hockenberry

Mary E. Hockenberry, 51, of Addison, NY, passed away peacefully at her home on June 15, 2026, surrounded by love.

Mary was born on October 16, 1974, in Geneva, New York. She was lovingly adopted and raised by her devoted parents, William J. and Judith A. (Hockenberry) Reagan. She graduated from Addison Central School in the Class of 1993, carrying with her the strong roots and close connections that shaped her life.

Mary will be remembered for her big heart, her creativity, and the quiet, steady love she gave to the people around her. She was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan and found joy in life's simple comforts—watching Beauty and the Beast, listening to Duran Duran, and admiring the talent of guitarist Slash.

She had a special gift for crocheting, spending countless hours creating blankets, scarves, and handmade treasures that became keepsakes for those she loved most. Each stitch carried care, warmth, and thoughtfulness.

Above all else, Mary's greatest joy was her grandchildren, Carter and Jessie, who brought light and happiness to her life.

Mary is survived by her loving fiancé, Scott Pastet of Watkins Glen; her children, Marcus (Alicia Warriner) VanDusen of Hornell and Amber (Will Tomlinson) VanDusen of Corning; her parents: William and Judith Reagan of Addison; her treasured grandchildren, Carter and Jessie VanDusen; her brother, Charles Barcomb of Dansville; her step-siblings, Sean Reagan of Medina, Ohio, Shannon Reagan of Mexico, New York, and Michael Reagan of Syracuse, New York; and her loyal four-legged companion, Scarlett.

Family and friends were invited to call at Flint Funeral Home, 10 Wall Street, Addison, NY on Friday, June 19, 2026, from 6:00pm to 7:00pm. A funeral service immediately followed, with Pastor Kevin Austin officiating. Kind words and fond memories may be offered at www.FlintFuneralHome.com

Prayer

Submitted by Sharon Calkins

(6/25/26) God doesn't care how we pray as long as we do. He loves to hear our voices. Jesus's disciples asked Him how to pray. He responded with the Lord's Prayer beginning with Our Father Who art in Heaven. You can read this in Luke 11:1-4. God doesn't expect our prayers to be fancy words, only that what we pray is honest and from the heart. We can pray anytime and anywhere, driving, mowing lawn or fixing dinner. It is just important to open your heart and talk to God. Then we need to learn to listen for His voice.

Finbarr Emmet Burke

Finbarr Emmet Burke passed away at the age of 38 at Highland Hospital in Rochester, NY on May 22, 2026, with his family around him. He was born June 21, 1987 with infantile spasms, a severe form of cerebral palsy. He was wheelchair bound his whole life. He attended school at the Center for the Disabled in Albany, NY and at Bethlehem Central School in Delmar, NY. He lived at home until he was 18, when he entered the NYSDDSO residence at Nunda, NY. At the age of 25 he contracted a double infection of an especially virulent strain of influenza and a pneumococcal pneumonia. He was hospitalized almost continuously for 2 years, during which he battled repeated infections. Since then, he has resided in the ventilation unit of The Highlands at Brighton near Rochester, NY. In his youth, Finbarr loved to be out in a crowd of people at festivals and concerts and family reunions. In his later years when he was bed-bound he continued to enjoy music and being read to. Though his life was a constant hardship, he clung to it with a strength and determination that put the rest of us to shame and helped us to put aside our little discouragements.

Finbarr is survived by his mother, Bridget (Kane) Burke of Addison, his sister, Siobhan Triona Burke of Troy, NY, his brother, Rory Joseph Burke, and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was predeceased by all of his grandparents, Francis and Mary (Lyons) Kane of Addison NY and James and Mary (Broderick) Burke of Johnstown, County Kilkenny, Ireland; by his father, Joseph Christopher Burke, most recently of Delmar, NY, but originally of Johnstown, Ireland, and by all of his father's 15 siblings.

The Funeral Mass will be held at 11:00am on Saturday, July 4, 2026 at St Catherine's Church, 51 Maple St, Addison, NY, followed immediately by a luncheon and celebration of his life and his liberation in the church hall. His ashes will be laid to rest on July 5, 2026 at 3:30pm beside his father in Winston Cemetery in East Durham, NY. Flint Funeral Home has been entrusted with Finbarr's care.

Flowers are welcome, but donations in lieu of flowers may be made to your choice: Banjo Burke Memorial Fund, a 501 c (3) public charity supporting Parkinson's research and Irish traditional arts and sports at PO Box 32, Addison, NY 14801 or online at joebanjoburke.org;

the stories of Revolutionary War patriots. The National Society Children of the American Revolution (C.A.R.): Founded in 1895, the C.A.R. stands as the nation's oldest institutional youth patriotic organization, training future leaders for over 130 years. We are indebted with a deep sense of gratitude to our Revolutionary War Patriots who believed in something greater than themselves. In that same triumphant spirit, members from all three historic societies marched side-by-side in the festival parade, demonstrating an enduring, multi-generational commitment to the American ideals of freedom and community. Beyond the parade, the organizations combined their forces to host interactive public displays. These exhibits educated attendees on local Revolutionary War connections and emphasized how regional dairy farming has sustained the community since the earliest days of our Republic. Their shared dedication to the mission of historic preservation and education illuminated the stories of those who achieved American Independence, fostering a legacy of patriotism for all generations. "The participation of the D.A.R., S.A.R., and C.A.R. brought a profound sense of history to this year's festival," noted the event organizers. "Seeing these three organizations, each with well over a century of service to our country, working together to support local dairy farmers created a deeply meaningful experience for our visitors." By connecting their centuries-old missions with modern regional traditions, the three societies successfully strengthened community bonds and underscored the ongoing importance of both civic and agricultural preservation.

D.A.R. & Other Organizations Patriotic Celebration

On June 6, 2026, in a resounding tribute to the enduring spirit of American liberty, three of America's premier historic lineage societies joined forces at the annual Steuben County Dairy Festival in Bath NY. Appearing with three generations for the DAR were Corning-Baron Steuben, Kanestio Valley, and the Onwentsia Chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution (D.A.R.), the Newtown Battlefield Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution (S.A.R.), and the John Stewart Society Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution (C.A.R.)— The collaborative event successfully bridged centuries of American heritage with a celebration of local agricultural history and patriotic service. This powerful collaborative event successfully bridged centuries of patriotic service with a celebration of local agricultural heritage, serving as an inspiring prelude to the upcoming 250th anniversary of the United States. As our nation marches toward the historic America 250 milestone, this year's festival put a proud spotlight on the deep, foundational roots shared by these three guardian organizations of American history: The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (D.A.R.): Founded in 1890, the D.A.R. has dedicated over 135 years to historical preservation, education, and patriotism. The National Society Sons of the American Revolution (S.A.R.): Organized in 1889, the S.A.R. brings 137 years of dedicated service in perpetuating
