LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

Whew, what a busy weekend we've had here at the library! On Friday, we said a sad farewell to the Storywalk. Big Dance was a lot of fun to read (and dance) along the sidewalk. Thankfully, we have one more coming this year, just in time for Halloween. If you enjoyed Peppa's adventure, learning to unlock the dance inside her, you'll love Friendly Fright and her quest to make a new friend!

On Saturday, we had our booth at Greenwood Community Day. It was so nice to see everyone. Kids, your bikes all looked awesome! Also, we'd like to extend a big 'thank you' to all who adopted our orphaned books. Your donations will allow us to expand our Graphic Novel and Large Print collections, both of which facilitate reading better!

On Monday, we had our August board meeting. The meeting minutes are posted on our website, just in case you're looking for the latest 'tea.'

Guess what is happening just one week from today, on August 28th? It's our Mystery Meal, hosted by the Community of Christ church! Come at noon or so with a dish to pass and enjoy some food and fellowship with some friends and neighbors. Not much of a reader? No problem! The point of the meal is to get together and enjoy each other's company.

FAQs: Our hours are Monday 2:00-7:00pm, Tuesday and Friday 9:00am to 2:00pm, Wednesday 11:00am to 4:00pm. Homework Helpdesk is on Mondays. We have free internet use via Wi-Fi or public-use computers, fax capabilities and can make copies for a small charge. Yes, you can find us on Facebook! Contact us at (607) 225-4553 or greenwoodreadingcenter@gmail.com. Visit us on the web at: greenwood.stls.org

Woodhull Senior Citizens

The Woodhull Senior Citizens met August 5, 2025 at the Firemens Field for our annual picnic with 43 people present. The pledge was led by Warren Cline and the invocation by Barb Geesaman. We did our 50-50 and it was won by Sylvia Cambra. We had several guests this month Dan Clark, Joe Mach, Linda McChesney and Charles and Susette Cox and hope they join us again. After we enjoyed our great meal we had our usual white elephant sale. Cards were signed for Sharon Calkins, Barb Squier and Judy Graves.

It was a fun happy day. Our next meeting will be September 2, 2025. See you there.

Letter To The Editor

I wrote in my last letter that a Code of Ethics isn’t a requirement for the village. I have to apologize for this. What I should have said is that a Code of Ethics Committee isn’t a requirement. A Code of Ethics is a requirement. By having a Code of Ethics Committee, I believed it would bring more cost and drama to our village. I also stated that I didn’t think the board read the Code of Ethics that was presented or they wouldn’t have passed it because they would be in violation of Section 12 and 14. And the committee wasn’t privy to the situation when they copied it or made it up because of the violation (12&14). Also, the Mayor and Trustees can act on any violations of the Code of Ethics. That’s why I don’t think we need an Ethics Committee. I apologize for the mixup.

The Inspired Word of God

There is so much written in the Bible about all the different situations and emotions that mankind encounters each day. The Bible is, and will always be, the best way for us to learn about living a happy and virtuous life, and receiving salvation in order to spend eternity with our God in Heaven. The Bible has a multitude of different topics that are just as relevant today as they were thousands of years ago. It tells us about love, faith, hope, forgiveness, mercy, pride and almost any other topic you can think of. Not only does the Bible give hope and comfort to the world, it also is the Good News of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. God wants His people to be happy in this world and to be a shining example of His great love. True and lasting happiness is not determined by one's possessions or status in life, but by the relationship and love that they have with our Heavenly Father. The Bible tells us that the joy of the Lord is our strength, and to be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer.

*Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. R.S.V. Psalm 119:105
