Addison Senior Citizen Luncheon

Dave Clark, retired Addison School Teacher will present a program on WWI Doughboys at the Wednesday, September 17 meeting of the Addison Senior Citizens Luncheon. "WWI the Great War or the War to end all wars."

The United States entered the war in April 1917. The war raged in France for three years fought in the trenches to a bloody stand still. The Allies (France, England, Russia, Italy and Japan) as well as the Central Powers (Germany, Austria, Hungary, and Turkey) had suffered irreplaceable resources, supplies and manpower. With the United States entering the war with the Allies, it would be a matter of time before the Central Powers would collapse.

Private Stephen Smith Co.G, 105th regiment, 27th Division will be your guide as he shares his life and times as a Doughboy Over There. Private Smith endured bombardment, gas attacks, horrendous living conditions in trenches being wounded and surviving the Spanish Flu Pandemic.

We will gather at the Addison Community Center at 11:30. Please bring a dish to pass and your own table service for the 12:00 noon meal followed by Mr. Clark's presentation at 12:30. Birthdays will be celebrated for Emmy Lowery, and Danny Iler. Table decorations will be done by Joanne Coombs and Lew Bloise. Carole Kane is coffee chairman.

All those over 50 in the Addison area are invited to attend.

LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

September 11, 2001 was a day that many of us will never forget. At 8:46am, the NYC skyline was changed forever in the worst possible way. We who lived through the terror of that day will never forget. We will never forget the heroism of first responders, the wave of volunteers that rushed to help, those who gave their lives so that others could live. Here at the Greenwood Reading Center, we are deeply grateful to everyone who ensures our safety and freedom daily.

Thank you to the Greenwood Town Highway Department for our updated and brighter lighting! Gone are the outdated fluorescent, flickering bulbs that hummed and made everyone feel vaguely uneasy. They were all replaced by high-efficiency, LED lighting that makes the titles on our bookshelves that much easier to read.

New book alert! Inkworld; the Color of Revenge, by Cornelia Funke has hit the shelf, finally. You can find all four books of the Inkworld series in our Young Adult section. Orpheus is back, making trouble in the world that Mo so loving created and seeking his revenge . . .

Upcoming Events: The next Library Board meeting is scheduled for this coming Monday, September 15th at 7:00. On Thursday, September 25, our Mystery Meal will start at noon in the Community of Christ fellowship hall. The 'price of admission' is only a dish to pass!

FAQs: Our hours are Monday 2:00-7:00pm, Tuesday and Friday 9:00am to 2:00pm, Wednesday 11:00am to 4:00pm. Homework Helpdesk is on Mondays. We have free internet use via Wi-Fi or public-use computers, fax capabilities and can make copies for a small charge. Yes, you can find us on Facebook! Constitution Week

The United States Constitution, America's most important document, stands as a testament to the tenacity of Americans throughout history to maintain their liberties, freedoms and inalienable rights. And, Constitution Week is celebrated annually during the week of September 17-23 to commemorate its history, importance, and bring attention to how it serves still today.

This celebration of the Constitution was started by the Daughters of the American Revolution. In 1955, DAR petitioned Congress to set aside September 17-23 annually to be dedicated for the observance of Constitution Week. The resolution was later adopted by the U.S. Congress and signed into public law on August 2, 1956, by President Dwight D. Eisenhower. The aims of the Constitution Week celebration are to:

*Emphasize citizens' responsibilities for protecting and defending the Constitution.

*Inform people that the Constitution is the basis for America's great heritage and the foundation for our way of life.

*Encourage the study of the historical events which led to the framing of the Constitution in September 1787.

Constitution Week is a great time to learn more about this important document and celebrate the freedoms it gave us. Get involved by encouraging young people to sign the Constitution Week Proclamation Pledge and ask your local community officials to issue a proclamation about the Constitution.

For additional information about Constitution Week, please contact your local DAR chapter, Onwentsia Chapter see Crystal Myers: 607-359-2527.

(9/11/25) It was 24 years ago today when the planes flew into the Twin Towers in NYC, the Pentagon in Virginia and the other crashed in a field in Pennsylvania. I've heard people asking, "Where was God when that happened? Couldn't He have prevented that from happening? My answer to the 1st question is that He was right there amongst all the chaos. He was holding all those hurting from the devastation. My 2nd answer is that yes, He could have. However, we are given a choice to do good or not. They chose to hurt us by their actions. I don't know all the answers, but I do know that God will never leave us.

Making A Small Town Heavenly

If we think of others and their needs too, we can make a small town like heaven on earth. When the mentally ill person gets out of the hospital, he may look all right on the outside; he may not be well on the inside. He may wonder what embarrassing things he had done, and how many friends he had lost. He may also find people that draw around him to comfort him by their smiles, visits, phone calls, prayers, and cards.

Also with the mentally ill, there may be lots of trauma in the body from the intense activity during the illness. This trauma can be so severe requiring surgery and much healing.

Instead of people whispering and gossiping, we could all show love and concern to everyone with their troubles. Also blocking phone numbers and not returning calls is ridiculous when most calls are made out of need.

Love and Peace,
Eileen Zdanowski

Eileen Herrington

With hearts full of love and gratitude, we celebrate the extraordinary life of Eileen Herrington, who passed away peacefully on July 19, 2025, at the age of 86, surrounded by her devoted family.

Born on October 9, 1938, Eileen was a woman of remarkable strength, deep faith, and boundless love. Her life was a testament to perseverance, grace, and unwavering devotion to God and family.

Eileen was first married to Judson VanCor, with whom she shared six beloved children. Following Judson’s passing in 1983, Eileen married Arnold Herrington in 1985. Arnold lovingly helped raise her two youngest sons, Judson and John, until his passing in 2016. Her youngest son, John David, preceded her in death in 2021. Above all, Eileen was a devoted and loving mother.

Her greatest joy came from her family, and her legacy lives on through her children: Sandra Eaton, Sharon Seiber, Shelia Olbrei, Brenda Young, and Judson VanCor. She was a proud grandmother of 15 and great-grandmother of 20, each of whom carries forward her enduring spirit of love, faith, and resilience. She was an avid quilter and spent many years with her quilting group turning out cherished creations for many friends and family. In 2023, Eileen moved to Texas to be closer to three of her daughters, where she spent her final years surrounded by the warmth and care of family. Eileen’s faith was the cornerstone of her life. Her spiritual strength illuminated every path she walked, offering comfort, wisdom, and inspiration to all who knew her. She met life’s challenges with dignity and determination, embracing each moment with grace and gratitude.

Eileen’s life was a beautiful reflection of faith, family, and fortitude. Her memory will forever remain a blessing in the hearts of those she touched.

There will be a mass and graveside ceremony at the Woodhull Cemetery Chapel, Woodhull, New York on September 25th at 10 am to celebrate her life and interment alongside her husbands, Judson and Arnold and son John.

In lieu of flowers, a donation in her name to Wreaths Across America is preferred.

Yvonne Strauss At Addison Grange, Septmeber 18th

Addison Grange will be meeting on Thursday, September 18 at 7pm, at the Addison Community Center. The discussion will be led by Yvonne Strauss, an Addison area native who owns two businesses in town. Yvonne is the owner and practitioner at Total Wellness Physical Therapy and owner of Stevie's Ice Cream Stand, both on Front Street. She will be discussing her own history and ideas for improving the health of our community. Members of the public are welcome to attend, ask questions or share their own experiences. The Grange is not only for farmers, but for the betterment of all our rural community.

Addison Grange meetings are open to the public and are family friendly; refreshments are served halfway through the meetings.

Addison Grange has been working to keep the Pinnacle picnic area in decent condition; they have committees working on plastic waste reduction, a ban on municipal sewage on farm fields, and oversight of village board meetings. The Grange has also been sponsoring the Addison Square Dance every month for the past three years.

For more information on Addison Grange, call or text Pat Kane at 607- 738 - 6877

A Good Attitude

The dictionary defines “attitude” as a manner of acting that shows one’s inward thoughts and feelings. Each of us has an attitude, and the way we project ourselves to others helps shape our character and define our personality. A person’s attitude and individuality are developed over the years as a result of all the positive and negative situations they encounter. A person with a good attitude is usually more congenial, friendly and pleasant with others. They are well liked, easier to get along with and less anxious. In general, people just seem to enjoy their company. A more negative person with a poor attitude seems to worry more, is often uneasy and frets about things that may happen in the future. Changing one’s attitude or personality is difficult. However, all things are possible with God. The Bible tells us that we should have the attitude of Christ Jesus (Philippians 2:5). As humans, we have all come short of His glory. Although it is not easy to always have a good attitude, God wants us to keep trying to be the best person we can be. When a man’s ways please the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. R.S.V. Proverbs 16:7
