LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

Hi Friends! Have you ever considered the differences between standard type and large print books? With the advent of book-and-fireside weather and longer reading times, knowing the benefits of print style will help maximize enjoyment.

The most noticeable difference between large print and standard typeface is, obviously, the size of the words on the page. Large Print volumes set the size at around one and a half times the size of the regular version. Traditionally, standard typeface is 12-point type, with more modern books, especially the ones you see on racks at the grocery store, being 10 or 11-point type. One book recently weeded from our collection had print that was 8-point! Larger typeface reduces eyestrain and aids with concentration, especially for less voracious readers.

With such larger type, one would think that the size of the book itself would be quite a bit larger and heavier than its standard counterpart. While large print books tend to be slightly larger than average, publishers tend to mitigate the size with smaller margins and lighter weight paper. This has the extra advantage of reducing the cost of manufacture. Less cost to manufacture also means less cost to us!

Let us not forget e-readers! Type size isn't the only way to reduce eyestrain. If you prefer digital literary delights, try reading in dark-mode. This is also handy for evening reading, where a partner (or parent) might be bothered by the light. After all, reading under the covers or nightlight is a right of childhood that seems to carry over into adulthood. Have fun!

15th Annual Woodhull Winterfest Invites Everyone to "Come Experience the Magic of Christmas in Our Hometown"

The holiday season is coming to Woodhull, and this year the community is celebrating in a big way with the 15th Annual Woodhull Winterfest, November 27–29.

With this year's theme, "Come Experience the Magic of Christmas in Our Hometown," Winterfest will fill the weekend with lights, music, family activities, shopping, Christmas traditions, and plenty of hometown holiday spirit. Organizers are even issuing a friendly challenge: Let's put Hallmark to shame!

Friday — Lighting Up Woodhull

Winterfest begins Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. with the Tree and Village Lighting at the new pavilion. Families and friends are invited to gather for an old-fashioned hometown Christmas evening featuring a bonfire, s'mores, hot chocolate, mulled cider and Christmas caroling. Santa and Mrs. Claus will join the celebration, and visitors should keep their eyes open — the Grinch may even make an appearance! It will be a festive evening to gather around the fire, enjoy the lights and officially welcome the Christmas season to Woodhull.

Saturday — A Full Day of Christmas Fun

Winterfest continues Saturday, November 28, with activities throughout Woodhull. The Woodhull Winterfest Craft Fair will be held from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Woodhull Town Hall Gym, with vendors offering handmade crafts, unique gifts, holiday décor, specialty items and more. It is a great opportunity to do some Christmas shopping while supporting local crafters, vendors and small businesses. Activities at the Town Hall will also include children's crafts, face painting, Christmas movies throughout the afternoon, refreshments and other family activities. Santa may even stop by during the day.

At 2:00 p.m., children can join the fun at the Candy Cane Hunt at the Woodhull Community Playground. The Milo Pick Center will also be part of Saturday's festivities, with Holiday Gift Box/Holiday Basket Raffles from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and tours during the day. Winterfest organizers are also planning a Christmases We Remember Display and would love area families to share old Woodhull Christmas photographs. The display will offer residents a chance to look back at Christmas celebrations, families and holiday memories from Woodhull's past.

Gingerbread Houses & Christmas Music

Creative children, adults and families are encouraged to enter the Woodhull Winterfest Gingerbread House Contest at the Community Church of Woodhull. Gingerbreadhouses may be dropped off Saturday afternoon, with drop-off at 4:00 p.m. Entries will be judged by those attending the evening's festivities, with children's and adult categories.

The Community Band of Woodhull will present a special Christmas concert at the Community Church of Woodhull. The concert is another opportunity for friends and neighbors to gather and enjoy the sounds of the season together. Time TBA

Sunday — A Hometown Christmas Gathering

The celebration continues Sunday at 2:00 p.m. at the Milo Pick Center with a Woodhull Community Christmas Gathering. The afternoon will include beverages and refreshments and a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus. Anyone wishing to participate in the White Elephant Gift Exchange is invited to bring a gender-neutral wrapped gift. Participation in the gift exchange is optional — everyone is welcome to come and enjoy the Christmas gathering.

Calling All Craft & Food Vendors

There is still time for craft and food vendors to participate in Saturday's Winterfest Craft Fair. Vendor setup begins at 8:00 a.m. Saturday, with the Craft Fair open from 11:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. Outdoor setup is free, while indoor 10'x 10' spaces are $15 and are available on a first-come basis.

For vendor information or registration, contact Mary at 607-661-0108 or email woodhullwinterfest@gmail.com. Checks should be made payable to Woodhull Winterfest.

Come Home for Christmas in Woodhull

Woodhull Winterfest is about more than a schedule of activities. It is about neighbors gathering around a bonfire, children hunting for candy canes, families watching Christmas movies, musicians filling a church with Christmas music, shopping from local vendors, remembering Christmases gone by and watching the community light up for another holiday season. Whether you live in Woodhull, grew up here, have family in the area or simply enjoy the warmth of a small-town Christmas, everyone is invited to join the celebration.

Come Experience the Magic of Christmas in Our Hometown — and let's put Hallmark to shame!

For additional information, contact Mary Shupp at 607-661-0108, email woodhullwinterfest@gmail.com, or follow Woodhull Winterfest on Facebook.

Sam

Written by Diana B. Hunt (Stewart) in 1994

It was a comparatively quiet evening.

The dogs were all barking, but that's nothing unusual! After you get used to them it even sounds quite melodious with the voice of two hounds and one German Shepard.

Realizing the neighbors might not appreciate their hunting song, I opened the door to hush them. Before I could even speak in shot our house pet, Sampson Goliath.

Now, to someone not accustomed to Sam, (as we call him for short), they might view him as nothing more than an ordinary gray medium-sized cat. Wrong! Sam is anything but ordinary. How many other domestic cats will sit watch on the sofa and run to the door growling when a strange knock is heard? And whoever heard of a cat stalking for their prey twice their size woodchucks?

And if you don't heed this commands of "more food", turn on the bathroom sink for "my water", or just "pick me up" for some petting and crooning of "How's my Sam baby"? "How has his day been "? then he''ll sulk for awhile by stalking the house with his ears laid flat against his head and his long, long tail continuously swishing. I've learned from experience it's best to give him what he wants as soon as possible. If not, you're taking your own chances!

Take for instance a week ago, Sam came in as soon as I came from work. I immediately picked him up for his love talk, and fed him as soon as I put him back down. I then started to do up the morning dishes.

After a few minutes, Sam was by my legs meowing. I told him to wait a minute and I would turn on his water and then proceeded to stack the dishes in the drainer. Suddenly, I felt a feline creature jump on my back with all claws out to hold on.

Now I am not a person who becomes angry too easily, but it had been a hard day at work, my husband was already yelling about how soon supper would be ready and our son was banging away on his drums. So not realizing how unfair I was, I yelled at Sam to get the hell off my back and leave me alone!

I finished stacking the dishes and put the supper items out for the hungry human males then went to round up Sam for his drink. After a few minutes of search, I found him sitting on our bed with his most disdainful stare.

I picked Sam up and took him into the bathroom for his sink-drink. But he was still too annoyed at my cruel and inhumane treatment. He refused to drink. I coaxed and cajoled to no avail. He just would have none of it!

Well, to make a long story short, Sam turned his affections towards my husband for the remainder of the evening pretending I was nowhere around! He even had my husband be the choice one to let him out for his nocturnal hours!

But he showed me in the following morning that he was not one to hold a grudge and that all was forgiven. He did this by presenting me with the remains (heart and liver) of his midnight snack and purred quite loudly to let me know I was still his favorite.

The Pinnacle of Pinnacles

Now on the threshold of autumn, the weather feels perfect for hiking the hills above Addison. The Pinnacle provides resplendent scenery in every direction. Dappled, wooded hills are verdant as Ireland for a wee while yet. Underfoot the ground runs firm, and the going good, for all who wisely wander there. If they leave the maintained routes, they're wandering unwisely though.

For, the best defense against lethal ticks remains a well-trimmed trail. Volunteers from this rural community do holy work every Wednesday at 10:00, for hiking at 11am. Hikes at the weekend follow at 6pm whenever the weather warrants it. Such activity also maintains the health of the participants and gives thanks and praise to the Creator of all creation. hikingpilgrim@gmail.com 607-857-8479.

The Inspired Word of God

There is so much written in the Bible about all the different situations and emotions that mankind encounters each day. The Bible is, and will always be, the best way for us to learn about living a happy and virtuous life, and receiving salvation in order to spend eternity with our God in Heaven. The Bible has a multitude of different topics that are just as relevant today as they were thousands of years ago. It tells us about love, faith, hope, forgiveness, mercy, pride and almost any other topic you can think of. Not only does the Bible give hope and comfort to the world, it also is the Good News of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. God wants His people to be happy in this world and to be a shining example of His great love. True and lasting happiness is not determined by one's possessions or status in life, but by the relationship and love that they have with our Heavenly Father. The Bible tells us that the joy of the Lord is our strength, and to be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer.

Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. R.S.V. Psalm 119:105
