LibraryWise: News and Notes from the Greenwood Reading Center

Alert! The Southern Tier Library System is in the process of purging old IDs from the system. If you have a 'barcode' library card and haven't updated it in a while, you may want to do that, before you lose privileges. As always, there is no fee for renewing your card or signing up for one at any STLS library. Whew, with that out of the way, how about we start again.

Happy Autumn! Shorter days mean longer evenings, and those longer evenings are perfect for 'falling into a good book' at the end of the day! A cup of cider, a cozy afghan, maybe a pet in your lap, and all you need is a compelling book! Better yet, how about a good book series?

September was a prolific month by way of author birthdays; it would take more than one column to cover them all! Here are some highlights: Edgar Rice Burroughs (Sept. 1, 1875) penned The Land that Time Forgot, with literary favorite, Tarzan; Taylor Caldwell (Sept. 7, 1900) wrote Dear and Glorious Physician among others; O. Henry (Sept. 11, 1862) wrote the Christmas classic The Gift of the Magi; Roald Dahl (Sept. 13, 1916) penned children's classics like the Willy Wonka series; Else Holmelund Minarik (Sept. 13, 1920) wrote the beloved children's series about Little Bear; Agatha Christie (Sept. 15, 1890) was a prolific mystery writer with beloved heroes like Hercule Poirot; Upton Sinclair (Sept. 20, 1879) wrote the bane of freshmen high schoolers, The Jungle; Stephen King and H.G. Wells were both born on Sept. 21 (1947 and 1866, respectively); F. Scott Fitzgerald (Sept. 24, 1896) wrote The Great Gatsby, among others; T.S. Eliot (Sept. 26, 1888); and last, but not least, Truman Capote (Sept. 30, 1924.)

Didn't see anything inspiring? Why not pop in and let us help you find your next 'obsession?' Remember, if we don't have it, we can almost always get it!

FAQs: Our hours are Monday 2:00-7:00pm, Tuesday and Friday 9:00am to 2:00pm, Wednesday 11:00am to 4:00pm. Homework Helpdesk is on Mondays. We have free internet use via Wi-Fi or public-use computers, fax capabilities and can make copies for a small charge. Yes, you can find us on Facebook! Contact us at (607) 225-4553 or greenwoodreadingcenter@gmail.com. Visit us on the web at: greenwood.stls.org

Forgiveness

Submitted by Sharon Calkins
(9/25/25) In my reading from Bible Gateway this morning, I was reminded of the story of the man being forgiven of his large debt but refused to forgive the man who owed him a little. Jesus gave His life to forgive us. Do we do the same or hold it against someone?
It is not an easy task and we sometimes don't want to. Erica Kirk forgave the man who killed her husband. Are you and I willing to forgive someone who hurt you or someone you loved?

Lloyd will be always remembered by his family as a true family man. He was predeceased by his parents, and 2 heavenly born babies Nathan and Julie. He is survived by the love of his life Cheryl VanSkiwer Drake whom he married on June 25, 1965, his 6 children Jeff (Liz) Drake, Aaron Drake, Melissa (Steve) Persichilli, Jeanne (Lyle) Wade, Emily (Ed) White, Jason Drake, 21 grandchildren Colby, Amber, Abbey, Steven, Patrick, Mitchell, Russell, Garrett, Rebecca, Jessi, Kelli, Taylor, Devan, Shelby, Derek, Briana, Jacob, Benjamin, Joshua, Brandon, and Mathew, 19 great grandchildren Jonathan, Celestia, Theron, Madeline, Karma, Logan, Katie, Jackson, Mason, Holden, Sorin, Kalyra, Addilyn, Baby Brustsman, Evan, Emalia, Serena, Elnora and Kloe, and his favorite dogs Brownie and Curley Sue. Elizabeth M. Galbraith

Elizabeth M Galbraith, age 77, of Addison, NY passed away on Friday, September 5, 2025, at the Corning Rehabilitation Center in Corning, New York. Born on July 27, 1948, in Philadelphia, PA, she was a graduate of P.S. DuPont High School in Wilmington, Delaware where she excelled both academically and athletically. She attended the University of Delaware in Dover, Delaware. Elizabeth had a long and fruitful career working as a proofreader and editor. She was well regarded in the publishing field, and was often acknowledged to be the smartest person in the room. Following her many years of working in house at W. B. Saunders, a leading medical publisher, Elizabeth made the transition to self-employment and mastering the evolving digital technology. This transition allowed her the freedom to homestead in West Virginia and then settle in West Chester, Pennsylvania where Elizabeth fulfilled her life-long dream of reading Homer’s Iliad and the Histories of Herodotus in the original Greek. In her later years, Elizabeth relocated to the Southern Tier in New York, to be close to her parents as she continued her work in the increasingly complex “global” medical publishing industry. She was a loving and dutiful daughter, whose presence in their lives made their sunset years truly “golden”. Her tireless efforts and patience enabled their joint annual production and management of a large organic garden of herbs, flowers, and vegetables as well as a small, well-cultivated orchard of fruit trees. From childhood, Elizabeth was an avid reader, who gained an encyclopedic and ever-growing knowledge that spanned the spectrum of human endeavor. Not only did she make short work of the most challenging crossword puzzles, but she gladly shared this information when needed, and her counsel was treasured by friends and family. Elizabeth was a lifelong naturalist, animal rights advocate, and environmentalist long before these views were considered fashionable. Most recently, her affection for animals found ample outlet in caring for a well-loved assortment of 17 cats from three unexpected litters of kittens. Elizabeth’s second passion was cooking and baking. Among her friends and family, Elizabeth’s well-developed senses of taste and smell were well known and her holiday cookies, quick breads, scalloped potatoes, lasagna, baked spaghetti, and assorted soups and stews were legendary. Elizabeth is survived by her former partner and continued friend, David Metcalf of Reedy, West Virginia; brothers, Hugh C. (Alison) Mason, Jr. of Newtown Square, PA, and David L. Mason of Wellsville, NY; 6 nieces and nephews; and also Jessica, Junior, Sox, Nosey, Casey, Lovey, Blondie, Darling, Frankie, Scaredy Cat, Rufus, Brenda, Gracie, the “ginger bros” Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone, and the “color kittens” Dolly and Calico. It was Elizabeth’s wish that there be no services. In lieu of flowers, donations in Elizabeth’s name may be sent to the Chemung County SPCA Spay/Neuter Clinic; or Doctors Without Borders.

A Good Attitude

The dictionary defines “attitude” as a manner of acting that shows one’s inward thoughts and feelings. Each of us has an attitude, and the way we project ourselves to others helps shape our character and define our personality. A person’s attitude and individuality are developed over the years as a result of all the positive and negative situations they encounter. A person with a good attitude is usually more congenial, friendly and pleasant with others. They are well liked, easier to get along with and less anxious. In general, people just seem to enjoy their company. A more negative person with a poor attitude seems to worry more, is often uneasy and frets about things that may happen in the future. Changing one’s attitude or personality is difficult. However, all things are possible with God. The Bible tells us that we should have the attitude of Christ Jesus (Philippians 2:5). As humans, we have all come short of His glory. Although it is not easy to always have a good attitude, God wants us to keep trying to be the best person we can be.

When a man’s ways please the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. R.S.V. Proverbs 16:7
