“Ode To Addison”

By Jeff Causer

This country music single is being sung by Cat Flint and is scheduled to be released on 9/5/25. The song is about her hometown of Addison, NY.

Cat grew up on Maple St. in the village and is the daughter of Steve and Deborah Finamore-Flint. Cat is locally known around town as Catherine Rose.

Cat is a graduate of ACS and she is now living and performing around the Nashville, TN area.

Jasper Central School 50th Year Reunion

At the end of June, the class of 1975 from Jasper Central School met for a 50th year reunion. Twenty-two out of the original 36 were in attendance and several others sent pictures. Three of our former teachers-- Mr. Baier, Ms. Cutter, and Mrs. Cheeseman also joined us. We gathered at the Feed Mill in Woodhull with Mike McCaig as our MC. We sang our Alma Mater, had a moment of silence to remember our 2 deceased classmates, and Greg Brotzman opened with prayer before we enjoyed a delicious meal. Various classmates brought memorabilia to share, including our Senior yearbook and scrapbooks made by Virginia Bliss containing newspaper clippings of Jasper news. Each of us got a pen with “Class of 1975” inscribed, and tested our memories with 50 trivia questions that began “do you remember?” or “can you name...” Needless to say, there were lots of laughs with those! Jack Button made the contacts so we could tour our old school building and we took lots of pictures out front. (Two classmates are missing from this photo as they left a little earlier.) After our photo session, Phil Marsh offered a tour of a working wind farm, and others spent some time at the Jasper Historical building (what we knew as the Wigwams). Those who were able to wrapped up the day with light refreshments and more great conversations at Bill & Kim Heckman's pond. Deb Stephens reflected our sentiments when she said, “I just didn't want this day to end!” Respectfully submitted, Kim Paddock Heckman

God Will Take Care of You

Submitted by Sharon Calkins

(9/4/25) Matthew.6:26: Look at the birds of the air; “They don’t sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your Heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?” We sow and reap and sometimes worry that we don’t have enough. We need to learn that God will provide. I know there will be hard times but He will see us through. Sometimes we live from paycheck to paycheck, but somehow we make it through. God never fails to be by our side and He will provide. Don’t ever forget that.

LibraryWise: Greenwood Reading Center

Happy School Year! Something tells me that, while most parents are ready to bust out the bubbly and sing Auld Lang Syne along with school Alma Mater, their students probably aren’t so thrilled. Chances are, students are reprising Wake Me When September Ends as their alarm ringtone. Either way, parents and students, here’s to a successful school year! We at the Greenwood Reading Center will be happy to help you and your students however we can. Just try not to smile too hard as you wave the school bus ‘goodbye’ in the mornings.

Though the calendar says that summer lasts until September 21, the weather sure seems determined to get a head start, doesn’t it? The nice thing about fall is that we’re getting back into ‘book and fireside’ weather! It’s a lot more fun to curl up with a good book and a fluffy blanket when the temps aren’t pushing into the nineties. Not only that, but gathering around the fire in the fire pit is more fun when you can get closer to the fire without feeling drops of perspiration rolling down the back of your neck. Bust out those marshmallows, kids! Any that don’t end up toasted or incinerated over a camp fire can end up in a cup of hot cocoa!

A new month means turning the calendar. Here’s a look at what we have coming up so far this month. Our next board meeting is scheduled for September 15th at 7:00 pm, and our Mystery Meal is set for the 25th.

Cornelia Funke fans; did you know that there is a fourth book in the Inkworld series? We’ll have it available very soon. Dustfinger, Fenoglio and other beloved friends shall ride again! Sadly, someone defaced our copy of InkDeath, so it was removed from circulation. We were able to order a new copy, however, so that title will also return to circulation soon. To whoever felt the need to ‘edit’ a library book, there is a better way to address any concerns you have over the media in our collection; please contact us with your concerns!

FAQs: Our hours are Monday 2:00-7:00pm, Tuesday and Friday 9:00am to 2:00pm, Wednesday 11:00am to 4:00pm. Homework Helpdesk is on Mondays. We have free internet use via Wi-Fi or public-use computers, fax capabilities and can make copies for a small charge. Yes, you can find us on Facebook! ### A Good Attitude

The dictionary defines “attitude” as a manner of acting that shows one’s inward thoughts and feelings. Each of us has an attitude, and the way we project ourselves to others helps shape our character and define our personality. A person’s attitude and individuality are developed over the years as a result of all the positive and negative situations they encounter. A person with a good attitude is usually more congenial, friendly and pleasant with others. They are well liked, easier to get along with and less anxious. In general, people just seem to enjoy their company. A more negative person with a poor attitude seems to worry more, is often uneasy and frets about things that may happen in the future. Changing one’s attitude or personality is difficult. However, all things are possible with God. The Bible tells us that we should have the attitude of Christ Jesus (Philippians 2:5). As humans, we have all come short of His glory. Although it is not easy to always have a good attitude, God wants us to keep trying to be the best person we can be.

When a man’s ways please the Lord, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. R.S.V. Proverbs 16:7
