Please be sure to take a few minutes to register. This can be done online at www.iccauburn.com, pick up a registration form in the gather space or stop by the parish office.

SPECIAL COLLECTION NEXT WEEK CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

Next weekend, the (arch)diocese will take up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Catholic University is a national research university, in the heart of Washington, D.C., with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. The University's various research and training initiatives support dioceses and parishes in responding to the most pressing needs of their faithful. A few examples of how the University serves the Church and nation include The Catholic Project, an initiative that aims to heal the breach of trust many have experienced as a result of the crisis in the Church; a master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management; and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers. Visit: collection.catholic.edu to learn more

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Saint John Paul II called for priests to be "Men of Communion." Priests are called to help people enter more and more into communion with Jesus in the Eucharist and the whole life of grace. He is also called to help people have communion, fellowship, friendship with each other in Christ. This is what our parish is all about. The priest leading each other to the Eucharist and to each other. The parish is a free zone for true communion in Jesus' beauty, goodness, and truth.

I would like to thank everyone who helps the pastor do this work in many various ways. Thank you for helping make our parish a place of encounter. I especially today would like to thank those who helped make our annual parish picnic a delightful moment to remember. I would also like to thank the Knights of Columbus for the various ways they have already been a big help to me. The praise under the tent event and the Eucharistic procession immediately come to mind. Our staff as well keep our parish organized, prepared, and joyful. Thank you!

If you are pondering how you can help be a "man or woman" of communion" at our parish, please pray about how you can help in the areas of hospitality, evangelization, discipleship, and apostleship. The first step is simply to be present here with sincerity of heart but the next step is to be at the service of communion in some concrete way. I thank you ahead of time for your consideration.

The parish is the future of the Church and world. Let's simply enjoy parish life and focus our lives more here. And let's help grow our parish communion and in this help many, many far-aways be drawn to the goodness, truth, and beauty of Jesus Christ our Savior.

Peace and Joy, Fr. Drew
