ARTIST'S WORKSHOP

The Gadsden Arts Center & Museum Artist's Workshops are designed to allow regional artists to engage and inspire the Big Bend region. Join us in this exciting initiative, where we will work with art lovers to create a successful and enriching experience. Gadsden Arts will provide studio space, marketing, and registration for each workshop. The tuition amount is split 50/50 between Gadsden Arts and the artist.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

-  How many people can join?
The registration minimum is 6, and the maximum is 16 participants. If the minimum is not met, artists will be contacted in advance and asked if they wish to continue or cancel.
-  Will materials be provided for the workshop?
Materials for the workshop can be arranged in one of two ways: artists can provide the materials themselves and include that cost in tuition or request that participants bring their own materials.
-  Can I tailor the workshop to a specific skill level?
Yes. The workshop can be tailored to accommodate artists of all skill levels, whether they are beginners, intermediate, or advanced. Please specify the level(s) for your workshop in the description.
-  Are there any restrictions on mediums?
Yes. Our space cannot accommodate oil-based materials, contain toxins, or require special ventilation or disposal. Oil paint and solvents are not permitted.
-  What teaching aids or equipment are available for use during the workshop?
There is a TV available that can be used to display presentations, videos, or demonstrations.
