

Research Library

Dr. Layton Revel

All items are located at residence (40243 Windycrest Circle) and office/warehouse/storage building (1409 Carroll Ave).

- Books - 500+ copies
- Magazines - several hundred copies
- Binders - Containing photos, paper ephemera and pictures
- Travel Drives - 25+ USB drives
- Hanging files - eight filing cabinets (files on players, teams and black baseball history.
- Negro League newspapers and copies of articles from newspapers
- Player Interviews - Tapes and DVDs (approximately 100 different players).
- Forgotten Heroes and Early Pioneers of Black Baseball - cases and single copies of book. 100+ cases and several hundred loose books.
- Sports Educational Inventory - cases of books, card sets, single cards and uncut sheets.
- Videos - 50+ videos and DVDs

This research library consists of materials that Dr. Revel gathered over his 40 + year history of researching Negro League, Latin baseball and Minor League baseball. It represents thousands of manhours that it took him to collect all of these historical resources.

(Estimated value of the Research Library - $ 50,000.00+)