

Tri State League (1935)

The Tri State League was formed in 1935 under the leadership of Allen Page who owned the Page Hotel in New Orleans and who also owned the New Orleans Black Pelicans.

The teams that reportedly played in the “league” were as follows:

- Clinton (LA)
- Ferriday (LA)
- Laurel (MS)
- Louisiana Stars (Donaldsville, LA)
- Mobile (AL)
- New Orleans Black Pelicans
- Newton (MS)
- Pensacola (FL)

No league standings have been found.