ACCOMMODATION

- 1. Customers can book accommodation in a private room inside self-catering and sharing properties, all of the same standards. Customers express a preference about the property's location and we will do our best to assign that one, but sometimes this is not possible.
- 2. Customers pay the first four weeks of stay to secure the place.
- 3. A security deposit equal to 4 weeks of rent per person is required is required in advance of arrival and it will be refunded after final check out, provided that notice of termination in accordance with the Residential Tenancy Act 2004 (amended) has been given. Note that the property has to be clean and in the same condition as it has been received by the time that you
- are checking out. 4. The customer will be required to accept our CHECK-IN AGREEMENT upon the booking time and to provide a valid ID/Passport document. You accept responsibility for any damage or loss brought about by you. Full payment for any such damage/loss must be paid immediately and if not, you will be liable for meeting any claims subsequently made against Quick Galway as a result of your actions.

ENGLISH COURSE

- 5. Purchasing an English course online it must be paid for in full. For long-term course packages, we accept a 50% payment in advance and 50% balance in advance of arrival. When purchasing an English course online customers are required to pay a school booking fee. That covers school material, registration fee, wi-fi connection in the school, final certificates and evaluations.
- 6. Schools' programmes and rates may change time by time during the year, we will provide updates to our customers on a regular basis and rates won't change after the booking time. QuickGalway does not assume any liability for loss, delay or accident of any kind whatsoever which might occur due to fault or negligence of any third-party com- pany such as language schools. We act as agents only for the language schools and other service providers and do not accept responsibility or liability for any variations.

INTERNSHIP

7. Purchasing an internship online it must be paid for in full to allow our team to place the candidate in the desired field. Company details will be provided only 2 weeks prior to the arrival. The hosting Company will confirm the internship placement after an interview and/or receive full detailed information about the candidate's skills, previous experience and CV profile. The placement level and duration will depend on the entry English level, tested during an interview with our team.
