The Family of Gene Bellm, extend our heartfelt appreciation to all who supported us during this difficult time. A Special thanks to Fr. Joe for his comforting words, the organist & choir for the beautiful music, Kris Rosentreter who served as the altar server, proclaimed the Liturgy of the Word & delivered the eulogy with heartfelt sincerity, Amy Killam for preparing the Mass programs & made sure everything was in order, & the funeral dinner committee for the comforting meal. Your kindness, generosity, & presence brought immense comfort to our family during this difficult time. God bless you all, Eugene, Suzanne, Stephanie &

Dear Monica, Amy & Ss Mary & Joseph Parish, Thank you so much for coordinating & supporting an opportunity for our team to share our mission to renew the culture of life. Your generosity & hospitality are a true blessing that strengthens & encourages us as we ride to witness for life. For Life, Biking for Babies

Thank you to everyone who gave to this wonderful cause! Our Tri-Parish Community ended up collecting over $500, plus online donations as well!

Greetings from the Holy City of Rome!

I arrived here in Rome on Wednesday evening after my meeting in Warsaw, Poland. The meetings and the visit went very well. The Pallottines have a strong presence in Poland with two Bishops and almost 600 Priests and Brothers serving there. The Archbishop of Warsaw is a Pallottine.

My meeting was in Warsaw. The Pallottines serve in Parishes, Schools, Shrines of Divine Mercy, Retreat and wellness centers and many social and charitable works. I could visit couple of these places.

In addition, I was able to visit the Shrines of Divine Mercy (Sr. Faustina Kovalska's Place) and St. John Paul II in Krakow. I specially remembered you all, our Tri-Parish Community and your intentions and offered prayers for you.

Now our team is getting ready to welcome over 70 youth arriving in Rome from all over the Pallottine world who will be joining the Jubilee of youth taking place in Rome from July 28-August 3 with thousands of youth from across the globe. We have scheduled different activities for our group along with the common events. Lots of details and logistics to take care of. We will be working on the details these days.

Please keep us in your thoughts and prayers. Praying for a successful event and a fruitful experience. When we pass through the Holy Door of St. Peter's, I will remember you in my prayers.

Blessings of Peace and Joy Always!

Fr. Joe
