Added control and peace-of-mind with always-on credit monitoring

With credit monitoring and identity protection features, you'll be alerted if your accounts or personal information might be compromised so you can take action. Additionally, you'll be able to gain financial knowledge and expert support to help you be better prepared to protect yourself against potential fraud.

Experian Credit Monitoring

Industry leading services allow you to set your goals, get alerts to track your progress, or spot early signs of potential identity theft to help protect your future.

Experian CreditLock™

Block fraudsters from using your information to get new credit and act quickly to help prevent identity theft. Unlock it when you want to apply for credit.

Dark Web Monitoring

If we find any threats on the thousands of websites and millions of data points we scan, we'll tell you so you can respond.
