

IMMANUEL

Broken & Loved, Saved by Jesus, Freed to Live

As we enter the season of fall, we see the results of growth. Crops, given months to grow tall and fruitful, are ready for harvest. I see this harvest daily on my drives to and from Pepin on the river road. Farmers, out in the fields, reaping what has taken months of work to produce. Jesus, using the image of a mustard seed, reminds us today that our faith is not instantaneous. Like the mustard seed, like crops, our faith is a life-long journey of growth. What a comfort knowing that we have the ultimate farmer to tend us, in Christ.

We are in need of snacks for our youth on Wednesdays

We are in need of various snacks for our Faith Adventures and Confirmation students on Wednesdays. We have approximately 42 youth.

Pre-packaged items work well, such as crackers,
cookies, pudding, animal crackers, yogurt, goldfish, chips, granola bars, mandarin oranges, etc. You can drop them off at the church. Thank You!!!
