

IMMANUEL

Broken & Loved, Saved by Jesus, Freed to Live

Scripture speaks to us in different ways in different parts of our lives. On this Reformation Sunday, we get the opportunity to hear two opposing views on prayer: that of a Pharisee, and that of a tax collector. There are times where we are the Pharisee, thinking we are doing well in our following of Christ and letting those around us know. And, there are times where we are the tax collector at the end of the line on our knees to God. Know this both: Pharisee and tax collector, are recipients of God's grace. Humbled, and exalted. Saint, and sinner.

We are in need of snacks for our youth on Wednesdays

We are in need of various snacks for our Faith Adventures and Confirmation students on Wednesdays. We have approximately 47 youth.

Pre-packaged items work well, such as crackers, cookies, pudding, animal crackers, yogurt, goldfish, chips, granola bars, mandarin oranges, string cheese, etc. You can drop them off at the church.

Thank You!!!
