Grace Notes

The Harvest

Whether you enjoyed a big family feast, quiet days at home, Friendsgiving, giving thanks for this year's harvest, or celebrating in a way that's most special to you, here's hoping you found and experienced God's presence in every conversation, every plate passed, and every meaningful moment during this Thanksgiving week.

Lord, thank You for the harvest, for Immanuel and our friendships here, for our families, for the food on our tables, and for Your faithfulness throughout the year. Thank You for the seeds of grace, patience, and hope You continue to plant and grow in our lives through all the joyful, quiet, and challenging seasons. Amen.

Lori Clark

Advent Worship and Fellowship

Advent worship will begin this Wednesday, Dec. 2 at 5PM.

A time to visit will follow with appetizers of smoked fish, cheese and wine or sparkling grape juice.

Hat and Mitten Tree

Help us fill our hat and mitten tree with hats, scarves, socks, and mittens/gloves to help people stay warm this winter.

ELCA Good Gifts

ELCA
Good Gifts
www.elca.org/goodgifts

The ornaments display is in the narthex near the base of the stairs leading to the sanctuary.

Select an ornament packet with an amount you want to give (only pay for one of the 2 ornaments.)

To pay, you can either:

- Place your money/check in the box with a sticky note to indicate your gift option and we will send it in.
- Go to the website elca.org/goodgifts to select and donate there.

Hang one of the ornaments on the tree for us to celebrate the gift.

Hang the other ornament on your tree or give the ornament to someone.

Thank you for sharing the love of Jesus with those in need!
