

TORNADO & FIRE♦ EVACUATION PLAN

The Trustees and Ushers have written an evacuation plan in case of a tornado.

Evacuation plans are as follows:

Please file out orderly with the first bench in each specified section beginning the evacuation process.

The ministers will be assisting the men and the women in the first 3 benches of each section.

The trustees will be assisting those in the remaining benches of the men's sections.

The ushers will be assisting those in the remaining benches of the women's sections.

1st three benches of each section (both men and women)

Exit through the west door by the pulpit to the rooms behind the pulpit.

If there are wheelchairs, they should follow out with center sections.

Men's outside
section

The men's outside section, starting with the 4th row, will exit out the west wall and proceed out the coat room door and into the men's restroom and attached utility closet.

Men's Restroom

Men's center
section

The men's center section, starting with the 4th row, will exit out the back of the assembly room using both aisles. The main aisle will enter the SS assembly room and the conference room. The other aisle will enter the SS assembly room.

Conference & SS Assembly Room

Women's center
section

The women's center section, starting with the 4th row, will exit out the back of the assembly room using both aisles. The main aisle will enter the SS assembly room. The other aisle will go to the north cubicle of the dining room or the SS assembly room.

Dining room or SS Assembly Room

Women's outside
section

The women's outside section, starting with the 4th row, will exit through the north door into the rooms behind the pulpit. If you are closer to the center aisle you may exit with the center section.

Behind Pulpit

Baby Room will exit into the north cubicle of the dining room.

If we must take shelter during the afternoon services, we would also be using the Bible Class room.

In the morning the Sunday School Children will be ushered into the Bible Class room by the Sunday School teachers.

 In case of fire, please exit to the nearest outside doors after leaving the assembly room.
