January is Pro-Life Month

Throughout this month, many Pro-Life Masses, prayer vigils, and marches will take place across our country. The first March for Life began in 1974, one year after the Supreme Court's Roe v. Wade decision on January 22, 1973, as a peaceful witness to the dignity of every human life.

The Annual March for Life in Washington, DC will take place Friday, January 23rd. The day begins with a Rally at the National Mall, followed by the March at 1:00 p.m. (ET), walking past the U.S. Capitol and toward the Supreme Court.

This year's theme: "Life Is a Gift" — celebrating life from conception to natural death. Last year's crowd was estimated at nearly 100,000 participants.

Can't attend in person?

You can watch the March and nearby prayer vigils on EWTN from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., or visit marchforlife.org for information on speakers, concerts, and events.

Let us continue to pray, witness, and stand together for life.
