Saint of the Day

Cletus was a Roman, but probably of Athenian origin. He was the third Pope, reigning from about 80 to 92. He built a small shrine over the tomb of St Peter on the Vatican hill, and was himself buried close to the first Pope. The Colosseum in Rome was inaugurated during his reign.

Schlarman Raffle will be held at the fairgrounds at 6:30pm, May 1st.

Schlarman North Campus will have their Junior/Senior Prom May 2nd, starting at 6:00pm.

Schlarman and CCD students will be receiving First Communion on Sunday, May 3rd at 10:00am mass

Words From the Popes

After bringing us back into God’s embrace and into the fold of the Church, Jesus is the door that leads us back into the world. He urges us to go forth to encounter our brothers and sisters. Let us never forget that all of us, without exception, are called to this; we are called to step out of our comfort zones and find the courage to reach out to all those peripheries that need the light of the Gospel (cf. Evangelii Gaudium, 20). Brothers and sisters, “going forth” means that we, like Jesus, must become open doors. How sad and painful it is to see closed doors. The closed doors of our selfishness with regard to others; the closed doors of our individualism amid a society of growing isolation; the closed doors of our indifference towards the underprivileged and those who suffer; the doors we close towards those who are foreign or unlike us, towards migrants or the poor. Closed doors also within our ecclesial communities: doors closed to other people, closed to the world, closed to those who are “irregular”, closed to those who long for God’s forgiveness. Please, brothers and sisters, let us open those doors! Let us try to be – in our words, deeds and daily activities – like Jesus, an open door: a door that is never shut in anyone’s face, a door that enables everyone to enter and experience the beauty of the Lord’s love and forgiveness. (Pope Francis, Homily, Kossuth Lajos’ Square, Budapest, 30 April 2023)

Congratulations to our Honored Volunteers!

The Peoria Diocesan Council of Catholic Women celebrated the service of dozens of volunteers across the Diocese of Peoria on April 28th.

Members of Danville Area Women Connect voted for representatives from St. Paul’s parish.

Congratulations to Jenny Causey & Jennifer Martindill
God bless you for your dedicated service!
