Memorial Day Blessings for 2025...May the memory of the fallen live on through our gratitude, our freedom, and the way we choose to live with purpose and kindness. We recall their sacrifices and pray that God will bestow His blessings the families of the fallen and gift our nation with peace and comfort.

Adopt-A-Garden-Bed Program....The sign up sheet for the Church and school Flower beds is posted on the bulletin board in the Walnut Street vestibule of the Church. As in past years, we are asking for fellow parishioners to "adopt" one (or more!) areas to care for this growing season. Most of the beds require only an occasional weeding and possibly watering if it hasn't rained recently. Families, couples, or individuals are encouraged to sign up for this ministry as part of your stewardship gift to the Parish. A few new beds were added last year, bringing the total to 27 areas needing attention, so we are in need of even more volunteers this year. Your efforts will be truly appreciated by all. Contact Kasi Mitchell if you have questions: 217-213-2075.

WELCOME MONSIGNOR JAMES KRUSE

On July 1, 2025 we will welcome Msgr James Kruse as Holy Family's new Pastor. He is coming from Princeton, Illinois. Monsignor has served in many areas of the Diocese including Vicar General and Judicial Vicar. He has studied Canon Law and was Director of Canonical Affairs. Please give him a warm welcome.

SUMMER HOURS (ST. PAUL'S)

Please note the new summer hours at St. Paul's. We will be closed on both Thursdays and Fridays.
