"Love only bears fruit in self-giving," he said, "when we are willing to lose a little of ourselves to make room for another, to lose a little time to listen to a friend, and to lose a little comfort to share in a time of hardship."

Jesus also says that we must lose our own life in order to truly find it, which allows us to open ourselves to the joy of love."

Pope Leo IVX

Saint Anthony Zaccaria's Story

At the same time that Martin Luther was attacking abuses in the Church, a reformation within the Church was already being attempted. Among the early movers of the Counter-Reformation was Anthony Zaccaria. His mother became a widow at 18, and devoted herself to the spiritual education of her son. He received a medical doctorate at 22, and while working among the poor of his native Cremona in Italy, was attracted to the religious apostolate.

Anthony Zaccaria renounced his rights to any future inheritance, worked as a catechist, and was ordained a priest at the age of 26. Called to Milan in a few years, he laid the foundations of three religious congregations, one for men, one for women, and an association of married couples. Their aim was the reform of the decadent society of their day, beginning with the clergy, religious, and lay people.

Greatly inspired by Saint Paul—his congregation is named the Barnabites, after the companion of that saint—Anthony preached with great vigor in church and street, conducted popular missions, and was not ashamed of doing public penance.

Anthony Zaccaria encouraged such innovations as the collaboration of the laity in the apostolate, frequent Communion, the Forty Hours devotion, and the ringing of church bells at 3:00 p.m. on Fridays. His holiness moved many to reform their lives, but as with all saints, it also moved many to oppose him. Twice his community had to undergo official religious investigation, and twice it was exonerated.

While on a mission of peace, Anthony became seriously ill and was brought home for a visit to his mother. He died at Cremona at the age of 36.

VATICAN NEWS

Jesus (...) invites us to take His yoke upon us and to learn from Him who is "gentle and lowly in heart" (Mt 11: 29). Taking the Lord's yoke upon us means first of all: learning from Him. It means always being ready to go to His school. From Him we must learn gentleness and meekness: the humility of God who shows himself in His being a man. St Gregory of Nazianzus once asked himself why God wanted to become a man. The most important and for me the most moving part of his answer is: "God wanted to realize what obedience means to us and He wanted to measure everything on the basis of His own suffering, on the invention of His love for us. In this way, He Himself can directly know what it is that we feel - what is asked of us, what indulgence we deserve - calculating our weakness on the basis of his suffering" (Orationes 30; Theological Talk IV, 6). At times we would like to say to Jesus: Lord, your yoke is far from light. Indeed, it is tremendously heavy in this world. But then looking at the One who bore everything - who tried out on Himself obedience, weakness, suffering, all the darkness -, then these complaints of ours fade. His yoke is that of loving with Him. And the more we love him and with him become loving people, the lighter becomes his seemingly burdensome yoke.

(Pope Benedict XVI, Homily, 5 April 2007)

ADOPT-A-BED....If you'd like to adopt one or more of the planting areas around the church or school grounds to care for, a sign up sheet is located in the Walnut Street entrance of the church. Parishioners, families, and students have adopted areas in the past as part of their contribution to beautify the areas surrounding the church. Most beds need an occasional weeding and possibly watering during dry spells. Feel free to add colorful plants if you'd like. Questions?
