Prayer For Election

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God...and it shall be given him." Elections require wisdom, how to vote, whom to trust, and how to speak with others. God Promises wisdom to those who ask in faith. Pray for clarity that aligns with truth and love.

Prayer:

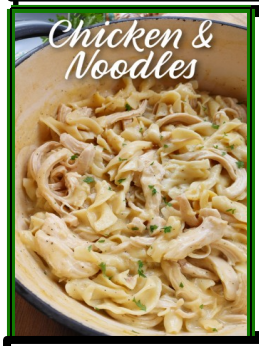

"God of all wisdom, grant clear understanding in this election. Help voters discern truth, weigh issues faithfully, and choose with integrity. Give candidates wise counsel and humble hearts. Keep confusion and deception far away. Let Your light guide our decisions and honor Your name. Through Jesus Christ, Amen.

St. Martin de Porres: A mulatto Dominican

Love was stronger than societal custom, however. It made Martín humble, and he asked to be accepted by the Dominican priory in Lima as a lay helper. Eight years of the humblest service, cutting the friars' hair, scrubbing, sweeping and tending to the needs of the poor, showed the prior, Juan de Lorenzana, that this "servant boy" had an extraordinary heart. So when Martín was 24 and asked to be admitted as a professed brother, de Lorenzana decided to ignore the law and allow this young mulatto to take vows.

Not all of the friars agreed with their prior. Not all had allowed the light of the Gospel, which is given to all men, to penetrate their heart to an equal degree. "Mulatto dog," some called him. One of the priests mocked him for his illegitimate birth. While Martín suffered these taunts, they did not disturb his peace. He was God's servant and the servant of his brothers, even if they were cruel. When the friary fell into debt and the prior set out to sell some of the friary's valuables, Martín begged his brothers, "I am only a poor mulatto, sell me." They did not sell him. While there may have been a few hard-hearted friars, others had eyes to see the depths of charity and prayer in this young mixed-race man who was their brother.

VATICAN NEWS

The resurrection of the crucified Jesus from the dead sheds light on the destiny of each one of us. For he told us: "This is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day" (Jn 6:39). Thus, the focus of God's concerns is clear: that no one should perish forever and that everyone should have their own place and radiate their unique beauty (…). For this reason, Christians always remember the deceased in every Eucharist, and still today ask that those dear to them be remembered in the Eucharistic Prayer. From this proclamation arises the hope that no one will perish. May visiting the cemetery, where silence interrupts the hustle and bustle of life, invite us all to remember and to wait in hope. As we say in the Creed: "I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come." Let us commemorate, therefore, the future, for we are not enclosed in the past or in sentimental tears of nostalgia. Neither are we sealed within the present, as in a tomb. May the familiar voice of Jesus reach us, and reach everyone, because it is the only one that comes from the future. (Pope Leo XIV, Angelus, 2 November 2025)

We were so pleased to see such a great turn out at the Hallow Mission meetings. Deacon Mark Danis had a wonderful message to share and we had nearly 60 people at each event. The Local did an amazing job catering and no one left hungry. Thank you to Eve Ludwig and Trina Cahill for putting the events together and for all those who brought and cooked desserts. We hope everyone walked away with a little sense of faith and community.
