THREE PHANTOMS

2022

Some of you may remember the strange affair concerning the Phantom of the Opera...

While the Lloyd Webber musical has established itself as perhaps the most immediately recognisable adaptation of Gaston Leroux's original novel, it would be unfair to disregard the numerous other stage and screen versions which, throughout the years, have entertained audiences with their own particular interpretations of this fascinating story.

All of which brings us rather elegantly to this evening's performance - a unique occasion on several counts. Three Phantoms since 2009 has already been applauded by over 150,000 audience members with 4 UK tours, a Scandinavian tour, 2 performances, by invitation with the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, a residency at The Parisian Theatre, Macau, sold out gala performances at the MES Theatre at MediaCorp, Singapore and a sold out tour of Shanghai and Beijing in 2020.

Leading a skilled company of top international singers are three performers who have all played, to critical acclaim, the mysterious mask musician, the Phantom, in Andrew Lloyd Webber's, the Phantom of the Opera.

It is designed to be culturally sensitive, fun, stylish, economically competitive and technically versatile. It can be presented with 3 configurations in mind: Piano and Cello, 15 to 21-piece orchestra to full symphony orchestra.

Our casts are always synonymous with titular roles and in particular Andrew Lloyd Webber's 'Love Never Dies', Cameron Mackintosh's production of Andrew Lloyd Webber's 'The Phantom for Opera' and other theatrical interpretations of the Phantom of the Opera story, whether it be from London's West End or from around the world.

Three Phantoms has won five star plaudits and has been described as "the best gala evening of musical theatre you are ever likely to see", to "imagine musical theatre-meets-the-Rat-Pack" and it would be our honour to captivate and enchant your audiences with our own unique music of the night.
