A Study of the Articles of Faith

SESSION 57

XII. OF THE HARMONY OF THE LAW AND THE GOSPEL

We believe that the law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of his moral government; that it is holy, just, and good; and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts arises entirely from their love of sin; to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy law, is one great end of the gospel, and of the means of grace connected with the establishment of the visible church.

According to Article XII:

1. Baptists believe that the law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of His moral government.
2. Baptists believe that the law of God is holy, just, and good.
3. Baptists believe that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts arises entirely from their love of sin.
4. Baptists believe that one great end of the Gospel is to deliver “fallen men/fallen people” from their love of sin and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy law.
5. Baptist believe that the gospel is the mean of grace connected with the establishment of the visible church.

OF THE HARMONY OF THE LAW AND THE GOSPEL

In this study on the 12th Article of Faith, we'll look at the harmony between the Law and the Gospel. We'll define both, identify the contents of both, and discuss how the two align with one another.

Rarely, do we hear Christians emphasize the importance of obedience to the Law. Rather, oftentimes, more emphasis is placed on being led by the Spirit than being obedient to the Law. What is the reason for this? Believers are encouraged to submit, to yield, and to obey the Spirit of God...but not the Law? Obeying the Law is almost frowned upon...while walking in the Spirit is spoken of with admiration. What is the reason for this?

Perhaps the reason for this has to do with the fact that obedience to the Law is associated with Judaism, while walking in the Spirit is associated with Christianity. Or perhaps the reason is because obedience to the Law is viewed by some as an attempt to attain righteousness or right-standing with God through works of the flesh, while yielding to the Spirit is realizing righteousness by being led by God. Whatever the reason, obeying the Law is rarely spoken about by believers with the same level of enthusiasm or appreciation as when speaking about walking in the Spirit. However, in this study, we'll see that one's regard for the Law should parallel one's regard for the Gospel and with being Spirit led.

Definitions

What is the...

Definition

1. Law      a. The word _____ means “doctrine” from the Hebrew word “to learn.” It is a collection of writings, containing a full account of the civil and religious laws of the Jews. It was initially oral laws used by the Pharisees and Orthodox Jews, to complete and to explain the written law.
2. Torah      b. The term _____ meaning “seventy” refers to the seventy-two translators, six from each tribe of Israel, who were involved in translating the Pentateuch from Hebrew to Greek in the third-century BC.
3. Pentateuch      c. The _____ contains God’s moral commands, demands, and expectations of humanity. It gives clear directives on how humanity is to govern behavior in their relationship with God and one another. It details God’s absolutes on right and wrong, good and evil, holy and unholy, clean and unclean, and righteousness and wickedness.
4. Gospel      d. The _____ is the first five books of the Old Testament or the Books of Moses (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy).
5. Septaugint      e. The Hebrew word that is translated “law, direction, or instruction” is _____. It is a body of directives, commands, instructions, and expectations from God to and for His people.
6. Talmud      f. The _____ is the Good News of the life (pre-incarnate, incarnate, and ministry), death (substitutionary, atoning, and propitiatory), resurrection, ascension, exaltation, and future return of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Understanding ARTICLE XII

Baptists believe that the law of God is the ETERNAL and unchangeable rule of His moral government.

Based on this first truth about Article XII, Baptists believe that the law of God is eternal...which means the Law of God has always existed and shall always exist. The Law of God, therefore, predates creation. It existed before creation was brought into existence and will continue to exist beyond the life of this current creation. The Law of God is eternal...It has always been and shall never cease to be the unchangeable rule of God's moral government. God's law, commandments, and ordinances are to guide and govern the conduct of His people forever.

Speaking to Israel, Moses said,

The LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me, 'I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken. <sup>29</sup> Oh that they had such a heart in them, that they would fear Me and keep all My commandments always, that it may be well with them and with their sons forever! <sup>30</sup> Go, say to them, "Return to your tents" (De. 5:28-30).

After giving Israel, God's law concerning burnt offerings (De. 12:20-27), Moses commanded Israel saying,

"Be careful to listen to all these words which I command you, so that it may be well with you and your sons after you forever, for you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God" (12:28).

Moses explained to Israel, that there are things, that are secret, that only God knows. Those things belong to the Lord our God. However, the things that have been revealed in the Law of God, belong to the people of God – forever --- that the people of God, may observe and keep the words of the law – forever.

“The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our sons forever, that we may observe all the words of this law” (De. 29:29).

The Psalmist declared that God’s truths and righteous ordinances are everlasting.

Psalm 117:1-2

Praise the LORD, all nations; Laud Him, all peoples! 2 For His lovingkindness is great toward us, And the truth of the LORD is everlasting. Praise the LORD!

Psalm 119:159-160

Consider how I love Your precepts; Revive me, O LORD, according to Your lovingkindness. <sup>160</sup>The sum of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous ordinances is everlasting.

Jesus taught that heaven and earth are temporal...they’ll pass away...people will pass away...but His words are eternal...they’ll never pass away.

Matthew 24:32-35; Mark 13:30-31; Lk. 21:32-33

“Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near; 33 so, you too, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door. 34 Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

Point: God is the everlasting God (Gen. 21:33; 1 Chr. 16:36), Whose Kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom (2 Sam. 7:13, 16; Ps. 89:36-37; Dan. 2:44; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Isa. 9:7; Lk. 1:33) and Whose people, living eternally within His eternal Kingdom, will govern themselves according to the Laws of God (Isa. 2:1-4).

Questions: What laws of God readily come to your mind?

Question: What books in the Old Testament are called “The Law?”

Answer:

The first five books of the Old Testament are called “The Law” (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy). In Judaism, these five books are The Torah (which means Law) or The Pentateuch (which means five scrolls). Although these five books are called The Law, these first five books of the Old Testament include the history of the world from its creation to God’s covenants with Adam, Noah, and Abraham, to the establishment of the people of Israel and their deliverance from bondage to the Promised Land. The Law directed Israel on how to commune with God through the sacrificial system and the Levitical priesthood. The Law gave Israel guidance on how to live morally in the will of God and revealed blessings for obedience to the Law and curses for disobedience to the Law. The Law established moral absolutes that were to be kept by Israelites and are to be kept by the Church of Jesus Christ. The Law revealed behavior considered in and out of the will of God (Exodus 19:18-23:18; Lev. 18:1-30; De. 5:6-21). These moral laws were to guide Israel in their relationship with God and with one another and they're also to guide the Church in their relationship with God and with one another (Acts 15:28-29; I Cor. 6:9-20; Gal. 5:13-26; Eph. 4:17-5:21; Col. 3:5-25).

Point: The law of God is unchangeable...it cannot be altered. It is the timeless and eternal moral compass for humanity to determine right from wrong, good from evil, righteousness from wicked, and sin from God's will. It details the do's and don'ts for all humanity, who were created by God to live in the will of God. The law of God is to guide behavior in this life and will be the guide for behavior in the life to come.

Question: What adjectives are used to describe the Law? How do the righteous respond to the Law? Are there benefits for obeying the Law and consequences for not? If so, what are they? These will be looked at in the next study.

The Law is almost frowned upon, believers encourage other believers to yield to the Spirit of God, to allow themselves to be led by the Spirit of God, and to submit to the Spirit of God. Little to no time is spent learning the Law.

Memorization of favorite biblical passages is encouraged, but rarely if ever, are believers encouraged to learn the Law, to memorize the Law, or obey the Law. What's in the Law? What do the Scriptures say about the Law? Should there be any by Christians to learn the Law?

According to Article XII, “Baptists believe that the law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of His moral government.”

However, the Law contains the commandments, the statutes, the ordinances, and the moral expectations of God for His people. Therefore, while seeking to be led by the Spirit of God, Christians should seek to learn the Law of God, so that morally, they live according to the expectations of God personally and in relation to one another.

Places in the Bible Where Taught

- (1) Romans 3:31. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid; yea, we establish the law. (Also Matthew 5:17; Luke 16:17; Romans 3:20; 4:15.)
- (2) Romans 7:12. The law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. (Also Romans 7:7, 14, 22; Galatians 3:21; Psalm 119.)
- (3) Romans 8:7, 8. The Carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh (Also Joshua 24:19; Jeremiah 13:23; John 6:44; 5:44.)
- (4) Romans 8:2-4. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh; that the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. (Also Romans 10:4; Hebrews 8:10; 12:14; Jude 20, 21.)

The Doctrine of Perseverance of the Saints

Introduction:

In our prior lesson, we learned that the Scriptures teach that “real believers,” persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial professors. “Real believers” persevere in the faith through challenges that come because of one’s faith in Christ Jesus. In our prior study, we learned four wonderful truths about perseverance.

- First: Those with perseverance do not have the Word of God taken away from their heart by the devil (Lk. 8:11-12).

In Matthew’s account, Jesus explained that when someone hears the Word of God and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart (Matt. 13:19). The devil takes the Word away from the heart because the devil does not want people to be saved (Lk. 8:11-12). Therefore, those who sow the Word must study it, comprehend it, believe it, and share it in a manner that all listeners can comprehend and believe the Word of God. Those with perseverance do not have the Word of God taken away from their heart by the devil.

- Second: Those with perseverance, in times of temptation, do not fall away (Lk. 8:13; Matt. 13:20-21).

According to Jesus, some do not persevere. They fall away from faith when temptation, affliction, or persecution come because of the Word of God (Matt. 13:20- 21). When criticism, rejection, acts of evil, and various forms of ill-treatment come because of faith in the Word of God, those without deep roots in the faith, may fall away to stop the persecution. Therefore, those in the faith must encourage new converts to listen to sound preaching of the word of God, to read the Word of God, to commune with the Lord in prayer, to maintain fellowship with the Saints, to faithfully attend worship services, and to serve in ministry so their roots in the faith might grow deep...so they do not fall away. Those with perseverance, in times of temptation, do not fall away.

- Third: Those with perseverance, after hearing and receiving the Word of God, do not waste away (Lk. 8:14).

According to Jesus, some will not suffer the Word of God being taken away or fall away, will waste away by not bringing any fruit to maturity, not accomplishing much for the Kingdom of God...because of being preoccupied with the worries, riches, and pleasures of this life. This is the deceitfulness of wealth (Matt. 13:22) - it consumes the heart of some and causes them to be unproductive for the Kingdom. A Christlike/Biblical view of wealth can protect the heart from being deceived by wealth.

For example: It does not profit anyone to gain the world and lose his soul (Mk. 8:36); it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than it is for a rich man to enter the Kingdom heaven (Matt. 19:23-24); and a desire for riches can choke the Word causing it to be unfruitful in someone's life (Matt. 13:19). The Apostle Paul warned that the love of money can cause people to engage in all kinds of evil (I Tim. 6:6-12). Solomon taught that "He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance with its income. This too is vanity" (Eccl. 5:10).

Attorney, Orator, and major figure in the American Revolution – Patrick Henry once said: "I have now disposed of all my property to my family. There is one thing more I wish I could give them and that is faith in Jesus Christ. If they had that and I had not given them a single shilling, they would have been rich; and if they had not that, and I had given them all the world, they would be poor indeed." Patrick Henry.<sup>1</sup>

Point: Patrick Henry believed that having faith in Jesus Christ is the greatest wealth one could ever have...so much so...that if one had the wealth of the world and no faith, one would be poor indeed. Having persevering faith in Christ is beneficial for this life and the life to come.

PERSEVERANCE IN CHRIST IS TRUE WEALTH

- Fourth: Those with perseverance, after hearing and receiving the Word of God, produce away (Lk. 8:13).

Jesus explained that the seed in the good soil, are those who hear the Word with a good and virtuous heart, hold it firmly, and produce fruit with perseverance. For these, the Word of God is not taken away, nor do they fall away, nor do they waste away. These produce away! The Word of God is fruitful within them causing them to make a difference for the Kingdom of God. These with perseverance have impact for the Kingdom of God!

Fill in: I started understanding the Word of God and producing away for the Kingdom of God _____.

Additional Truths on Perseverance

In the Scriptures, “perseverance” is encouraged and expected in both belief and behavior. According to Paul, perseverance yields eternal life when belief and behavior are in accord with the Word of God (Rom. 2:1-10).

In chapter 1 of Romans, the Apostle Paul explained that the wrath of God has been revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness (1:18). According to Paul, evidence of God’s reality has been made evident to all (1:19). God has clearly revealed His reality to all. His invisible attributes, His eternal power, and His divine nature are clearly seen in creation (1:19).

Paul explained that the natural creation testifies to the reality of the invisible, all-powerful God...so that no one is able to deny His attributes, His power, or His divine nature...that He has revealed Himself by what has been made (1:19; Psalm 19:1-6). The creation, which can be seen reveals Him Who cannot be seen by the human eye --- the invisible God and because this is true, those who do not worship Him, but worship something other than Him, are without excuse (1:19-20). They cannot say, they don't know God! They may not know His eternal plans, which are revealed through supernatural revelation (i.e. the Word of God), but the creation (i.e. natural revelation) has revealed His reality!

Paul made it clear that since All know a creation exists, All know the Creator must exist - yet some have chosen not to honor God the Creator or give Him thanks. Instead because of a darkened foolish heart, some worship created things rather than the Creator (1:21-23). Because these refused to acknowledge God, God judged them, by revealing His wrath from heaven. God's wrath is revealed upon those who refused to acknowledge by God giving them over to three things:

1. God gave them over to their lusts (Rom. 1:24-25).

<sup>24</sup>Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them. <sup>25</sup>For they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

2. God gave them over to degrading passions (Rom. 1:26-27).

<sup>26</sup>For this reason God gave them over to degrading passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural, <sup>27</sup>and in the same way also the men abandoned the natural function of the woman and burned in their desire toward one another, men with men committing indecent acts and receiving in their own persons the due penalty of their error.

3. God gave them over to a depraved mind (a mind unable to discern right from wrong) (Rom. 1:26-27).

<sup>8</sup>And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God any longer, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do those things which are not proper, <sup>29</sup>being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; they are gossips, <sup>30</sup> slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, <sup>31</sup> without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful;

<sup>32</sup> and although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also give hearty approval to those who practice them (Rom. 1:29-32).

Point: The wrath of God is revealed against those who do not acknowledge Him. God gives them over to lusts, to degrading passions, and to a depraved mind...to practice things which are worthy of death. God releases those who do not acknowledge Him to their lusts. These ones know the ordinance of God, that people are not to practice such things. However, they not only practice these things, they give hearty approval to others who engage in behavior and practices which are contrary to the understood ordinance of God (1:32).

In chapter 2 of Romans, Paul warns everyone to not judge those whom God has given over to their lusts. Paul warns everyone that the same God that observed their behavior and judged them, observes each of us and will judge us if we do what is contrary to His will. Paul explained it this way!

First: Those who pass judgment on others, won't escape God's judgment when they practice the same things (Rom. 2:1-3).

Therefore, you have no excuse, everyone of you who passes judgment, for in that which
you judge another,
you condemn yourself;
for you who judge practice the same things (2:1).

Point:

Those who judge others/who condemn others for the practices they engage in that are contrary to the ordinance of God, condemn themselves...for they practice the same things. They have no excuse. They're not qualified to pass judgement on anyone who practice things contrary to the ordinance of God when they themselves practice things contrary to the ordinance of God.

While condemning others for practicing things contrary to the ordinance of God, they condemn themselves acknowledging that things contrary to the will of God should not be done.

The person who condemns the liar, who condemns the evildoer, who condemns the arrogant, who condemns the sexually immoral, or the disobedient, condemns him/herself when he/she also lies, engages in evil, at times is arrogant, at times is sexually immoral and/or disobedient. Thus, by passing judgment on others, they pass judgment on themselves! When they judge the behavior of another as against the ordinance of God and practice the same thing, they judge themselves as being one who practice behavior against the ordinance of God.

Point:

Because all have sinned, all must be mindful to not condemn others who practice things contrary to the ordinance of God -- because all have sinned - all have engaged in some behavior contrary to the ordinance of God. While condemning others, one condemns him/herself. None are qualified to judge/condemn another. None can say that he/she does not practice things contrary to the ordinance of God. This raises a question.

Question: What causes people to have 20/20 vision in seeing the sins of others but are too often blind to sins in their own life?

Transition: Paul goes on to state a truth that none can deny about the judgment of God. Paul writes:

And we know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who practice such things (2:2).

Point: God alone is qualified to pass judgement upon those who practice idolatry (won't acknowledge God), wickedness, and evil. God alone is qualified to pass judgment because He alone, does not practice the very things He condemns. All who judge practice the very practices they condemn. All have sinned! Sinners are not qualified to pass judgement on sinners...when they do...they judge and condemn themselves. God alone rightly passes judgment upon those who practice such things. Paul warns that those who pass judgment on those who practice things contrary to the ordinance of God, will come under the same judgment of God as those whom they condemn.

And do you suppose this, O man, when you pass judgment
on those who practice such things and do the same yourself, that you will escape
the judgment of God? (2:3)

Point:

Your perspective that some behavior is contrary to the ordinance of God, may be accurate. However, neither of us is given liberty to pass judgment or to condemn another for their behavior because the one passing judgment is also guilty of practices contrary to the ordinance of God. None who practice such things will escape the judgment of God. None of us are qualified to treat sinners in a manner that only God is qualified...as though we are like God and have no sin in our lives.

Major point:

Those with perseverance, don't practice things contrary to the ordinance of God. Those with perseverance refrain from judging and condemning others! They acknowledge God! They acknowledge that only God is qualified to judge. They acknowledge the existence of God and approve of behavior that is in accordance with the will of God. They acknowledge that they do not have the right to condemn others, for they are also sinners who merit the judgement of God just like everyone else.

It's possible and necessary to recognize and acknowledge behavior that is contrary to the will of God while also restraining oneself from passing judgment of those who practice such things. It's possible and necessary to recognize and acknowledge behavior that merits the judgment of God while also restraining oneself from condemning others as though you don't merit condemnation yourself (ref. Luke 18:9-14).

“And He also told this parable to some people who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and viewed others with contempt: 10 “Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and was praying this to himself: ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other people: swindlers, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I pay tithes of all that I get.’ 13 But the tax collector, standing some distance away, was even unwilling to lift up his eyes to heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, the sinner!’ 14 I tell you, this man went to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

DISCUSSION QUESTION

Question: How do we keep ourselves from practicing the very things God condemns, that while recognizing sin, we restrain ourselves from both practicing the sin and from judging and condemning the one who does? How do we restrain ourselves from engaging in behavior contrary to the ordinance of God?

Here are some things we can do.

- Practice Humility: Don't think so highly of yourself and so little of others

- Show Compassion: Show compassion rather than condemnation. Be empathetic to the challenge all face with sin. It's not easy to deny the flesh.
- Remain in Prayer: Pray that you and others will seek to live in the will of God.
- Be Honest: Be honest about your own struggles with sin.
- Be like Jesus: He was a friend of sinners. He sat with them, dined with them, and welcomed them into His life...He loved them and helped them to become who God wanted them to be.

Question: What do these things have to do with Perseverance?

Second: Those who persevere in doing good receive eternal life (Rom. 2:4-8).

Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and of His tolerance and of His patience,
not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? (2:4)

But because of your stubbornness
and your unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself
in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God (2:5), who WILL RENDER TO EACH PERSON
ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS (2:6):

to those who by perseverance
in doing good seek for glory and seek for honor
and seek for immortality,
eternal life (2:7);

but to those who are selfishly ambitious and who do not obey the truth, but who obey unrighteousness, wrath and indignation (2:8).

Question: What would doing good consist of in the context of these verses?

1. Acknowledge God, Who has revealed Himself in the natural creation.
2. Worship God and not created things.
3. Don't engage in idolatry...worshipping created things.
4. Don't engage in behavior that's contrary to the will of God.
5. Don't give approval of behavior that you know is not in the will of God.
6. Don't judge/condemn those who sin as though you have no sin.
7. Don't think lightly of the riches of God's kindness, tolerance, and patience towards you and others.
8. Repent of behavior that merits condemnation by God.
9. Don't be stubborn towards God by continuing in behavior that is contrary to the will of God.
10. Persevere, never give up, never quit doing things that reveal you honor God...seek to do that which is good in the sight of God, that which shows you honor/respect/think highly of God, and that which leads to immortality – eternal life.
11. Don't be selfishly ambitious...pursuing things that satisfy you but do not please God.
12. Obey the truth - God's Word.
13. Don't obey unrighteousness (behavior contrary to the will of God)

14. Don't obey wrath (behavior that merit the judgment/condemnation of God)
15. Don't obey indignation (behavior that evoke the anger of God.)

Never forget that those who persevere in doing good receive eternal life.

A Few Additional Truths about Perseverance

Truth 1: Perseverance is acquired through Tribulations (Rom. 5:1-3).

“Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>2</sup> through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.<sup>3</sup> And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance;”

Point: How do we acquire that godly ability to not give up faith in times of trials and difficulties? According to the Apostle Paul, Perseverance is the fruit of tribulations. We grow to have perseverance through tribulations. Tribulations is our instructor teaching believers how to endure – how to maintain faith – how to not give up trusting in God and Christ through difficulties. Each tribulation provides instruction on how to continue in faith through difficulties. Holding on to faith --- teaches us on how to hold on to faith. Therefore, we exult in tribulations because tribulations help believers grow in perseverance. This is a reason the Lord allows believers to go through tribulations. The Lord desires us to grow in perseverance.

Truth 2: Perseverance is a Character trait (Rom. 5:1-4).

“Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup>through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup>And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance; <sup>4</sup>and perseverance, proven character.”

Point: Tribulations help believers grow in their ability to persevere in faith through trials and difficulties. Those who persevere, who do not give up faith, prove their character...that within them there is determination, steadfast commitment to keep trusting in the Lord, despite their challenges.

Truth 3: Perseverance enables suffering believers to wait with hope for the advent of Christ (Rom. 8:22-25).

<sup>22</sup>For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now. <sup>23</sup>And not only this, but also we ourselves, having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our body. <sup>24</sup>For in hope we have been saved, but hope that is seen is not hope; for who hopes for what he already sees? <sup>25</sup>But if we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

Point:

The whole creation - all people everywhere groan and are suffering in this world. There is a universality of groaning! Everyone in this world is suffering, has suffered, or will suffer. All the world is suffering the pains of childbirth together. Even those with the Spirit – Spirit filled believers in the Lord Jesus Christ - groan within, waiting eagerly, waiting with anticipation, waiting expectantly for their adoption as sons, the redemption of their body – waiting for the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. Spirit filled believers along with all of creation are suffering and groaning. For believers, suffering ends when they experience the redemption of their body and their adoption as sons on the Day Jesus returns.

Major point:

Perseverance enables suffering believers to wait with hope to see what they do not yet see --- Jesus Christ, the redemption of their body, their adoption as sons, the revealing of the sons of God, and all the glory that accompanies the return of Jesus Christ (Rom. 8).

Truth 4: Perseverance and faith in believers causes other believers to have joy (II Thess. 1:3-4).

“We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brethren, as is only fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater; <sup>4</sup> therefore, we ourselves speak proudly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure.”

Point: The Apostle Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy gave thanks to God for the faith, the love, and the perseverance of the Thessalonian believers who were enduring persecutions and afflictions because of their faith in Jesus Christ. When believers observe other believers enduring persecutions and afflictions with perseverance and faith, it causes those believers to have joy!

Truth 5: Perseverance is continuing to maintain faith in Jesus through persecution for one's faith (Rev. 13:10; 14:11-12).

<sup>10</sup> If anyone is destined for captivity, to captivity he goes; if anyone kills with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is the perseverance and the faith of the saints...”

“And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.” <sup>12</sup> Here is the perseverance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.”
