QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

How will it change the way we treat one another—or even ourselves—if, like the psalmist declares, we bless God's name every day rather than cling to the negative or complain about the things that do not go as planned?

MORNING PRAYER

God of life, for this new day we give thanks. May we bear witness to the gift of life in all we say and do, from the flowers that bloom to the critters that creep, from the friends we seek out to the strangers we encounter. As the birds sing out their praises, may we, too, make a joyful noise. May our words and our actions reveal your good news. Help us to be inspired and awed by your extraordinary creation. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER

Holy God, you have indeed done marvelous things and we give thanks. Throughout this day we were challenged and found hope; we were surprised by the places and people who give witness to you. Be with us and those we love this night. Comfort those who are uneasy or afraid. Guide us through the night to the dawn of a new day filled with hope and promise. Amen.

LIE DOWN AND LISTEN IN THE DARK

Wednesday, November 12 • 9:00–10:00 p.m. • Gobin Sanctuary

The world feels heavy right now. Fires burn, hearts ache, and our minds rarely find stillness. Mental health experts remind us that rest, silence, and a break from our screens are essential for the soul. We invite you to an hour of peace and presence in our beautiful candlelit sanctuary.

Bring a sleeping bag, blanket, or pillow—and settle into a space on the floor, a pew or the playground—as Eric Edberg (cello), Micah Layne (flute), and Alexander Toro-Quíñones (pipe organ) offer live music designed to quiet the mind and open the heart.

Phones off. Candles lit. Music in the dark.

Leave your smartphone in the basket on your way in—it'll be waiting for you on your way out.

Come breathe. Come rest. Come listen.

"Lie Down and Listen in the Dark is co-sponsored by Gobin Church and the Greencastle Summer Music Festival."
