

BORN READY

By: Dove Cameron

Ready, set
Time to be a fighter
Don't look down
Keep on climbing higher Be yourself, 'cause heroes shine in different ways
And when your voice can't make a sound

Just know we hear you all around
Don't need to fit into the crowd
To be a force of nature
'Cause we're gonna be, we're gonna be, we're gonna be the best They're gonna see, they're gonna see that we were born for this

So if it takes forever
We'll save the world together
We were born ready
We were born ready, yeah, yeah,
yeah

And if your heart surrenders
We'll hold it up together
We were born ready
We were born ready Don't care if the world ain't ready for me

So if it takes forever
We'll save the world together
We were born ready
We were born ready, yeah, yeah,
yeah

And if your heart surrenders
We'll hold it up together
We were born ready

We were born ready
Don't care if the world ain't ready for
me
(Don't care if the world ain't ready) (Don't care if the world ain't ready for me)
We were born ready
We were born ready
Don't care if the world ain't ready for
me
me
