Bert: I love cookies!

Big Bird: Me too!

Oscar the Grouch: Me three!

Elmo: Wow! We all really love cookies. But, these cookies are mine.

The Count: But, if we all love cookies, doesn't that mean we are all the same?

Grover: Yeah, if we all love cookies, doesn't that mean... those are my cookies?!!

Cookie Monster: Did someone say cookies??!!

All: COOKIE COOKIE!!!!!!!!

(there's a slow motion running scene chaos as everyone tries to get a cookie.
Eventually, everyone clears, and Elmo is left with an empty tray and no cookies.

Elmo: You all stole my cookies??!

All (showing their cookies secretly to the audience, giggling): He he he!!!!

All of a sudden a camper comes out, and stops the chaos.

Mr. Snuffleupagus: Woah woah woah! What's happening here?

Elmo: Everyone thinks that these are their cookies, just because we all love cookies!

Rosita: If we all love cookies, doesn't that make us all the same?

Mr. Snuffleupagus: No no no. Everyone is different, even though you have some of the same likes!

All: Ohhhhhh... sorry Elmo.

Everyone gives the cookies back to Elmo.

Elmo: It's okay everyone! But now that you all bring it up- I am really confused.

Mr. Noodle: Yeah! How are we different people?

Telly Monster: What makes us special?

Zoe: God says that we all share different qualities that help make us who we are

Guy Smiley: Together, these traits make who we are the best person we can be!

Meryl Sheep: Because that's what makes us all unique!

Grouchy: I still don't get it.

Abby Cadabby: Yeah, what does that mean?

Cookie Monster: Maybe a little song will help. Hit it!!
