Parlando | Acting Scene

Villager 1: Chief! There's something you need to see.

Villager 6: Our traps in the east lagoon. They're pulling up less and less fish.

Moana 1: Then we'll rotate the fishing ground.

Villager 2: We have, there's no fish.

Moana 2: Oh... Then we'll fish on the far side of the island.

Villager 3: We tried.

Moana 3: The other side?

Villager 4: And the other side. The beaches, the rivers. We tried the whole lagoon.

Villager 5: They're just... gone.

Chief Tui 1: I will talk to the council. I'm sure we'll...

Moana 1: What if... we fished beyond the reef?

Chief Tui 2 (gasping): No one goes beyond the reef.

Moana 2: I know. But if there are no fish in the lagoon...

Chief Tui 1: Moana...

Moana 3: And there's a whole ocean...

Chief Tui 2: We have one rule.

Moana 1: An old rule, when there were fish.

Chief Tui 1: A rule that keeps us safe!

Moana 2: But Dad!

Chief Tui 2: Instead of endangering our people so you can run right back to the water!

Chief Tui 1: Every time I think you're all past this. No one goes beyond the reef!

Chief Tui's leaves the Moana(s). Moana(s) sit sadly

Moana 1: If only my dad understood.

Moana 2: I know he does it with love but...

All Moanas/Villagers (sighing): He just doesn't get me.
