Camp Song | You Say | Lauren Daigle

Do you ever think or tell yourself that you aren't good enough? Not fast enough? Not strong enough? Too quiet? Too loud? Not pretty enough?

Sometimes, voices in our head tell us these things, but more times than not, those voices are telling us lies.

Do you know what really matters?

This song tells us: "The only thing that matters now is everything You think of me. In You I find my worth, in You I find my identity."

God is the You in this song, and what He thinks and says about you is what matters. He defines your worth. In Him, you can find your identity.

He says you are loved when you can't feel His love.

He says you are strong when you think you are weak or too slow.

He says you belong because He says you are His. You belong to Him as His child.

As you sing this song, I want you to remember that you are amazing and wonderful, made by God and deeply loved by Him.

Camp Dance | I'm Finally Me | Laura Marano

Has someone ever told you that you are so short, too tall, too smart, or not smart enough?

Has someone made fun of you before?

The purpose of this song is to encourage you to be you; "finally me" as the words go. You don't have to be like anyone else. You can be you! That's freeing!

This week, we are learning that you are amazing and wonderful, made by God. (Reference Psalm 139:13-14) He doesn't want you to be anything else but the wonderfully made by God YOU!

UNIQUELY ME!

Olio | What I Am | will i am

May I tell you how special each one of you are?

No one else is like you, __Camper's name__ and you, __Camper's name__. (Go around saying the other camper's names in your group.) Our song says, "There's only one me, I am it." You are each extraordinary.

Just like our song says, you can be thoughtful, musical, smart, brave, helpful, and friendly. You are special!

Keep being the best you that you can be just like our song says, "Always be the best me that I can be."

Parlando | How Far I'll Go | Moana

In this song, Moana asks the question, "Who am I?" She knows everyone on her island. The people are happy and have a purpose. There is a beautiful design to everything on the island. However, the sea, the sky meeting the sea, the sunlight as it shines on the sea calls to her. She wants to feel the wind in her sails.

Moana's father didn't want her and the island people to travel beyond the reef. This song shares the struggle between listening to her father and stepping out to follow her dream with bravery.

As you learn this week about who God is and how He has made you amazing and wonderful, I want you to remember that God wants you to step out and be brave and pursue your dreams and purpose. He loves you and cheers you on.

Bombershay | Stand Out | Goofy Movie

The author of this song feels they need to "Shout out loud until mine is the only face you'll see" and "Stand out till you notice me, yeah."

Guess Who notices you and knows you by name whether you stand out in the crowd or hide in the wings?

God does! He knows everything about you and loves you, just as you are. You already stand out in His eyes. He sees you. He is happy with you.

Go shine and stand out for Him. May other notice you because you are kind, caring, thoughtful, a helper, and speak the truth.
