

Objective

- To help students understand that everyone has something unique to contribute
- To explore how individual expression (movement and sound) can work together to create something stronger
- To reinforce that belonging is built when we include others and value their differences
- To connect physical movement and creativity to the message: Every move I make matters

SUPPLIES

- Short dowels with 3 holes pre-drilled into one side
- Neon tape (pink, green, orange, yellow)
- Sparkly Tape (purple, blue, pink, black)
- Ribbon (neon + sparkly)
- Small jingle bells
- Strong tape or string

INSTRUCTIONS

- Wrap the handle fully in respective tape colours (Neon Ninjas using neon, Midnight Moonwalkers using sparkly)
- Attach 3-5 ribbons to the top through the hole in the dowel and tie in a knot
- Tie 1-2 small bells onto each ribbon
- Keep ribbons medium length (not too long = less tangling)
