PAYMENT POLICY

Losing someone deeply loved can be a devastating and challenging experience. It is important to be realistic with respect to funeral expenditures. Important decisions should reflect personal wishes and remain within budget. The payment policy listed below allows us to serve at our utmost.

CASH ADVANCE ITEMS:

Cash advance items are charges to others necessary to conduct our services. Such charges represent a cash outlay, without a profit being realized by Riley-Walker Funeral Service & Crematory. Therefore, payment for such advances is required at the time of the arrangement conference. Such charges will be reflected on the itemized statement of goods and services.

PAYMENT POLICY – TOTAL FUNERAL BILL

Cash or Check - The charges for our services and merchandise shown on the statement of funeral goods and services selected are due prior to the service. The prices on this price list represent a 3.5% cash or check discount.

Visa, MasterCard, American Express, or Discover - These credit cards are accepted for payment in full at the time of arrangements; prices charged, including cash advances, will be charged without the 3.5% cash or check discount.

Valid Insurance Assignment - A valid policy that covers total funeral expenses may be accepted with completion and company acceptance of a valid insurance assignment. Amounts payable by insurance, including cash advances, will be charged a 4% insurance filing fee.

We regret that we are not able to accept payments by estate or probate. In all cases where total payment has not been received by the due date, a late payment charge of 1¼% per month (15% per annum) will be assessed on the unpaid balance.

SIGNED CONTRACT REQUIRED:

It is our policy to not extend services or provide merchandise of any nature (except removal of the body from the place of death) unless a family member or other responsible party having the right to do so signs a contract authorizing the firm to act according to those desires.
