PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Parish Family,

First of all, another reminder, today starts the Novena to St. Joseph. Please see the bulletin insert so that you and your family can join. Josh and I have recorded these brief videos so that the whole parish can pray together in preparation to welcome our feast day!

Last week at the 10:30am Mass began a series of three rituals known as "the scrutinies." The scrutinies have ancient origins as ritual preparations for the baptism of catechumens. I ask you to keep our parish's catechumens, Rachel Deloian and Antonio Ramos in your prayers as they draw near to their baptism date.

In the early Church the whole season of Lent began as a period of intense preparation for catechumens to be baptized. Only later were the Lenten disciplines taken up by all the faithful as an annual renewal of their baptismal commitments made earlier in life or as infants. Before the legalization of Christianity, most baptisms were of adults; they were primarily performed on the Easter Vigil by the bishop. These adults, coming out of a pagan world, received a series of prayers for deliverance from the effects of original sin, including temptation, habitual sin and oppression by the evil one. Therefore, the scrutinies fall under the category of prayer known as exorcism.

Do not be alarmed! When we hear the word "exorcism" today, we tend to imagine the dramatics of Hollywood or the rather rare situation of demonic possession. The Church has another kind referred to as "minor exorcism" which is intercession and prayer aimed at the spiritual, moral and physical freedom of a person. Even the ritual for the baptism of an infant contains a minor exorcism. You might say to yourself, "why would a baby need such a thing?" Remember that exorcism is the kind of prayer which has freedom as its goal. Though an innocent baby has no moral agency to sin or to choose spiritual slavery, much like the plight of the Hebrews in Egypt or the children of enslaved peoples throughout history, we are not really born free. The plight of original sin is that human nature inherits spiritual slavery as a result of a primordial fall. Secular (post-Christian) convention would have us believe that we are born either as blank slates (unaffected by history) or that our only inhibitions are the result of genetic inheritance (nature) or bad environments (nurture). Christian anthropology recognizes a third reality. Aside from a person's genetic inheritance, or social environment, the immaterial or spiritual component of the human person is wounded too, it also needs liberation. This liberation comes from surrender to Christ Jesus. When we allow Jesus to find for us, to heal us, and to adopt us into His own person, there we find true freedom and unencumbered life!

Please remember that Christ longs for us to be truly free, to be human in a way that is not dominated by the world, our own fallen desire, or even by the Devil himself. As we all strive toward Easter engaging in self-denial to reassert our freedom, for those of us who have already been freed by baptism, the renewal of our baptismal dedication is the goal. The Sacrament of Reconciliation returns us to our baptismal resolve. When we acknowledge our sins, the occasions we have returned to slavery before Christ the High Priest, He in turn restores us to our liberty through absolution at the cost of His death and resurrection. Our Lord is willing to go the distance for our freedom, I pray that we will respond with the same dedication.

Peace,

Fr. Mike

L.I.F.E. MINISTRY PRESENTS...

Rachel's Vineyard Retreat Friday, May 3, to Sunday, May 5, 2024

If you are suffering from grief after having had an abortion, remember that God always offers forgiveness. Nothing is unforgivable and the Church is the hospital of healing. Just as the father ran to the prodigal son when he came home, so too is God waiting with open arms to receive you back home!

Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreats offer a beautiful opportunity for healing to any woman or man who has struggled with the emotional or spiritual pain of an abortion. The retreat is a chance to get away from the daily pressure of work and family, to focus on a painful time in life, and to begin healing through a supportive and non-judgmental process.

The weekend will help your soul find a voice and transform the pain of the past into love and hope.

The next Rachel's Vineyard retreat will be held locally from Friday, May 3, to Sunday, May 5. For more details or to register, please scan the QR code or visit qrco.de/RVMay2023

Catholic Dictionary

Laetare Sunday

(Latin for "Rejoice")
/leɪ'tɑ:ri/

is the fourth Sunday of Lent. The counterpart of Gaudete Sunday or third Sunday of Advent. This Sunday gets its name from the first few words (incipit) of the traditional Latin entrance (Introit) for the Mass of the day. "Laetare Jerusalem" ("Rejoice, O Jerusalem") is Latin from Isaiah 66:10. The priests wear rose vestments to express encouragement and joy.
