THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

We worship this morning upon the traditional and unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishnaabeg people. May we live upon this land in peace, truth and love.

Our liturgy is taken from the green Book of Alternative Services, beginning on page 230, and our hymnody is taken from the blue Common Praise hymnal.

Collect of the Day

Father of all, we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Reading: 1 Peter 1: 3-9 (sung by Michael Zappavigna)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him, and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Psalm 116: 1-8

Tone VIII.1

Gospel Acclamation: 709

Alleluia

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. John 11: 25,26

The Holy Gospel: John 6: 37-40 (sung by Rev. Geoffrey Chapman)

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away, for I have come down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me but raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day.”

Prayer after Communion

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee that thou dost graciously feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious body and blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; assuring us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are living members of his mystical Body, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee. And although we are unworthy, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

New! Pulse of the Parish: The winter issue of the Pulse of the Parish will be published on Thursday, November 27, 2025. Please submit your articles for the Pulse of the Parish newsletter to Dawn Gregory by Thursday, November 20, 2025. Please send articles via email to collinsgregory1@hotmail.com.

New! Scarf and Jewellery Sale: An eager team of volunteers is looking forward to sorting and pricing donations of scarves, costume and silver jewellery and other fashion accessories for this year's sale on December 1. Blue collection boxes are located outside the church office and at the back of the church. Please solicit donations from your friends, family, book clubs, fitness groups, grannie groups and any other social contacts.

New! Chapel Chat, Nov. 23 – Focus on Ukraine: Don't miss this unique opportunity to learn about Ukraine, including the experiences of Ukrainians who have recently come to Canada and the challenges they face. Representatives from St. Aidan's Anglican Church will discuss their work with partners in Ukraine who provide humanitarian aid to the displaced. Algonquin College's Ecumenical Chaplain will tell us about his work with Ukrainians through Campus Ministry. We'll also hear from a couple who benefited from the volunteer-run English Conversation Program for Ukrainian Newcomers in Ottawa. Feel free to invite friends who may be interested in participating. Please join us in the chapel following the 10:30 service.

CCFC: Help! A driver is needed to deliver food-drive groceries to Centretown Community Food Centre at 370 Catherine St. We average five food drives a year. I have been able to organize and deliver for the food drives these past 12 years however I no longer have a car. Please contact elizabethkent38@gmail.com or 613 276 8128. Thankyou for your help.

Rides to Church: If you need a ride to church, please fill out the sign-up form located at the back of the church. If you are able to offer a ride, please check the form for names, neighbourhoods, and phone numbers of those requesting transportation. Hopefully we can match up some folks.

Kids' Choir: Kids choir has started up! If you have a child interested in singing who is 6-7 years of age or older, please contact Barb Hallam-Price at: bhallamprice@gmail.com. We meet on Mondays at 4:30 p.m. and currently the choir sings once a month on the last Sunday.

Our Faith and Life Together – Fall 2025: Rev. Geoff will be offering a course offering teachings about our faith and life at St. Matthew's. Each session will take place on Sunday mornings, beginning on Sunday, October 19th from 9:00 am to 10:00 am in the chapel, concluding on Sunday, November 23rd. If you are new to this parish or a long-time member wishing for a deeper understanding of our faith, this course is an excellent opportunity to explore the depth and breadth of our tradition.

October 19th - Session 1: The Anglican Church of Ours

October 26th - Session 2: An Introduction to Biblical Scholarship

November 2nd - Session 3: The History of the Faith

November 9th - Session 4: Sacraments and Worship

November 16th - Session 5: The Church's Mission and Service
