THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

We worship this morning upon the traditional and unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishnaabeg people. May we live upon this land in peace, truth and love.

Our liturgy is taken from the Book of Alternative Services, beginning on page 185, and our hymnody is taken from the blue Common Praise hymnal.

Gloria

Mathias

Collect of the Day

Father, we praise you: through your Word and Holy Spirit you created all things. You reveal your salvation in all the world by sending to us Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. Through your Holy Spirit you give us a share in your life and love. Fill us with the vision of your glory, that we may always serve and praise you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading: Genesis 1: 1- 2:4a

When God began to create the heavens and the earth, the earth was complete chaos, and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day. And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day. And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day. And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day. And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day. And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind and the cattle of every kind and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let us make humans in our image, according to our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over the cattle and over all the wild animals of the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.” So God created humans in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished and all their multitude. On the sixth day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created. In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

Psalm: 8

H. Laves

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13: 11-13

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Be restored; listen to my appeal; agree with one another; live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Gradual Hymn: 256, Yours the Hand That Made Creation

Quem Pastores

Gospel Acclamation: 716

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. Isaiah 6.3

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 28: 16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshiped him, but they doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Chapel Chat, Sunday May 31: The Anglican Diocese of Ottawa Stewardship Resource Hub will be at St. Matthews to make a presentation on Legacy Giving at 12:00 in the chapel. Legacy gifts provide the Church with long-term financial sustainability, thereby supporting ministries, outreach and planning future growth. Legacy generally involves gifts often made through wills or estate plans. All are welcome to attend.

St. Matthew's Choir presents Requiem: On Friday, June 5 at 7:00 pm, St Matthew's choir will present a concert featuring Gabriel Faure's Requiem. This work set in seven movements, is scored for soprano and baritone soloists, choir and organ accompaniment. Several choral anthems by Stopford, Purcell and Parry will be presented. There will be an opportunity for all to join in singing some well-known and well-loved British hymns. Barbara Hallam-Price, director. Matthew Larkin, organ.

Bike Clinic: Saturday, June 6 - Bring your bicycle to St. Matthew's Church on Saturday, June 6, from 10 am to 1 pm for a 10-point check-up. Learn how to keep your favorite ride in tip-top shape yourself, and what to look out for as signs of problems that perhaps require more experienced help to deal with. Connect with others who share your passion for biking in and around Ottawa.

Potluck, Film, and Discussion: Saturday, June 6, 5:45pm – In recognition of National Indigenous History Month and making progress toward effective reconciliation, Creation Matters is hosting a viewing of the 2017 Canadian film, Indian Horse (14A/PG). The story centres on Saul Indian Horse, a young Canadian First Nations boy who survives Canada's Indian residential school system to become a star ice hockey player. Join us for a potluck supper at 6 pm followed by the film and a facilitated discussion.

Parish Council Meeting: Sunday, June 7 - There will be a meeting of Parish Council following the 10:30 service on Sunday, 7 June. This meeting will provide an update on-going work on the building, including results of the heating system feasibility study and progress on the Centennial Campaign, along with other business. All are welcome to attend.

Sunday School program is as follows:

- May 10: Knowing Jesus in a New Way (Godly Play)
- May 17: Parable of the Good Samaritan (Godly Play)
- May 24: Family Service (Pentecost)
- May 31: Prophet Jonas (Godly Play)
- June 7: Ark and the Flood (Godly Play)

Meditation - Liz Watson - Images of Meditation: St. Matthew's Christian meditation group meets weekly on Wednesdays at 11 AM via Zoom. For the next few weeks we will be listening to short, inspiring talks by Liz Watson, a spiritual teacher and retreat leader who discovered Christian Meditation over 30 years ago. For more information about the group, and to receive the Zoom link, please call Sue Rayner at 613-558-7899 or email m.s.rayner@sympatico.ca.
