THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Our liturgy is taken from the green Book of Alternative Services, beginning on page 185, and our hymnody is taken from the blue Common Praise hymnal.

Celebrant We worship this morning upon the traditional and unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishnaabeg people.
May we live upon this land in peace, truth and love.

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Opening Hymn: 505, Be Thou my Vision vv. 1, 3, 4

Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you have taught us through your Son that love fulfils the law. May we love you with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind, and all our strength, and may we love our neighbour as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading: Genesis 22: 1-14

After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you." So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away. Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you." Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. And the two of them walked on together. Isaac said to his father Abraham, "Father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" Abraham said, "God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." And the two of them walked on together. When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar on top of the wood. Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son. But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me." And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place "The LORD will provide," as it is said to this day, "On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided."

Psalm 13

Gordon Johnston

I will sing to the Lord, for he has dealt with me rich-ly.

Second Reading: Romans 6: 12-23

Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal bodies, so that you obey their desires. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that, if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you who were slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted and that you, having been set free from sin, have become enslaved to righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and lawlessness, leading to even more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what fruit did you then gain from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the fruit you have leads to sanctification, and the end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: 716

David Young

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light. 1 Peter 2.9

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 10: 40-42

“Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous, and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.”

Welcome our new Director of Music, Owen Spicer: Please join us in welcoming Owen to St. Matthew's. Owen is a conductor, organist and accompanist based in Montreal, Quebec. In 2025, Owen graduated from McGill University with a Master's in organ performance, studying organ with Isabelle Demers and Conducting with Jean Sebastian Vallée. Most recently, Owen was Director of Music at Trinity Anglican Church, where he helped launch the Jubilate Choir, a children's choir aimed at providing free music education to the broader Cornwall community. Owen also teaches piano and organ to students of all ages and is an avid runner and terrible chess player. Owen is incredibly excited to start his work as Director of Music at St. Matthew's.

June Outreach - Harmony House: This Sunday is the last for our new item collection for Harmony House, a second stage shelter for women and children. These items help furnish living units. To keep units uniformly equipped, suggested locations for purchases are: Ikea, Canadian Tire, Dollarama and Giant Tiger.

- Single and double bedding (no queen size)
- Basic white dish sets
- Stainless steel cutlery sets; basic cooking utensils
- Non-stick or stainless steel pots and pan sets
- Plastic or glass food storage containers sets

Please place items in the box at the back of the church. Thank you for helping the women and children of Harmony House! Contact Julia Lipinska at lipinskaj@rocketmail.com with questions.

Other Outreach Items: St. Matthew's Outreach collects some smaller items on a ongoing basis: used stamps, eyeglasses (no cases), outer plastic milk bags (clean and flat). See the collection containers at the back of the church for these items.

Please note we are NOT collecting: cosmetics, can tabs, yogurt-style plastic containers or prescription pill bottles. Can tabs on cans, plastic yogurt containers and prescription pill bottles can be put in City of Ottawa recycling.

Basic needs don't take a summer break. In July we will be collecting toilet paper for St. Luke's Table, a program of Belong Ottawa. Stay tuned for more details!

Plastic Free July - Be Part of the Plastic Pollution Solution: Plastic Free July is a shared global movement that helps millions of people reduce plastic waste in the choices they make everyday. The Creation Matters Working Group is hoping that every parishioner will be part of the movement. Information is available on line at Plastic Free July. We will be asking people to help us with recipes to make so we can avoid condiments in plastic containers. Sharing ideas of how you have helped to reduce plastic in your life will help us all reduce plastic pollution.

Meditation: For the months of July and August meetings will be held on Zoom each Wednesday from 11 to 11:30 AM. For more information about the group, and to receive the Zoom link, please call Sue Rayner at 613-558-7899 or email m.s.rayner@sympatico.ca.
