THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Service Setting: Service in the Phrygian Mode Charles Wood

Prelude: Nimrod from Enigma Variations E. Elgar

Processional Hymn: 575, Let Streams of Living Justice Thaxted

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

We worship this morning upon the traditional and unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishnaabeg people. May we live upon this land in peace, truth and love.

Our liturgy is taken from the green Book of Alternative Services*, beginning on page 230, and our hymnody is taken from the blue* Common Praise hymnal.

Kyrie (sung by the choir) Charles Wood

Collect of the Day (sung by The Rev. Geoffrey Chapman)

Father of all, we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading: Wisdom 3: 1-9

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster and their going from us to be their destruction, but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

Psalm 116: 1-8

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1: 3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him, and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation: 708

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. John 11: 25,26

Gradual Hymn: 375, At the Name of Jesus King's Weston

The Holy Gospel: John 6: 37-40 (sung by The Rev. Geoffrey Chapman)

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away, for I have come down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me but raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day."

Prayer after Communion

God of love, may the death and resurrection of Christ, which we celebrate in this eucharist, bring us, with the faithful departed, into the peace of your eternal home. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our hope and our salvation.

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee that thou dost graciously feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious body and blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; assuring us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are living members of his mystical Body, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom.

And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee. And although we are unworthy, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Blessing pg 248

Outdoor Work Party: Work party to prepare Church outdoors for Winter: we seek volunteers to join in a work party Saturday, November 7th at 9am. All the work will be outside, so dress warmly and bring a rake if possible (we will have extras). Refreshments will be served.

Update! Scarf and Jewellery Sale: The annual Scarf and Jewellery Sale will be held on Sunday, December 6 from 9:00am until 1:00pm. The success of the sale depends on your donations of scarves, stoles, jewellery, gloves, mitts, hats, toques, other fashion accessories and seasonal decor. We would like to receive them as soon as possible so that we have time to sort and price the many items. Please also solicit contributions from your family, friends and neighbours and leave them in the labelled boxes which are located outside the office and at the back of the church. Sterling silver and designer scarves with names such as Birks and Liberty are especially popular. Valuables can be left in the church office or given directly to Marg Terrett, Virginia Lindsay or Kathi Racine. If you would like to assist with sorting and pricing, please join us for our sessions this week on Tuesday, November 10 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. or on Wednesday, November 11 from 10:00 a.m. to noon. We also welcome volunteers to help set out the merchandise on Saturday morning, December 5 and to sell on Sunday morning, December 6. Please let us know if you are available to help.

Update! Pulse of the Parish: The winter issue of the Pulse of the Parish will be published on Friday December 4, 2026. Please submit your articles for the newsletter to Dawn Gregory via email to collinsgregory1@hotmail.com by Thursday November 26, 2026.

Centennial Capital Campaign Meeting: All are invited to join us on November 22 at 12:00 p.m. in the church hall for an update on our Centennial Capital Campaign. We'll hear about funds raised to date, progress on the building, and the exciting work planned for summer 2027, with Bill providing a more detailed look at what's ahead. We hope you'll join us to hear how the campaign is progressing and what we have to look forward to. All are welcome!

November Outreach: Funds for socks and winter outerwear for Belong Ottawa
During November we are engaging in a two-pronged outreach activity:

- collecting monetary donations for new socks
- collection of winter accessories

Any donations through the collection plate, mailed in or dropped off and marked "Outreach" or "Belong Ottawa" will be used to purchase new socks for our neighbours at Belong Ottawa (The Well, St Luke's Table, Centre 454). Include your name on the envelope for tax receipt purposes. We have located a source for purchasing some of the socks in bulk! They are always in demand. Could you spare $10?

And as last year, please scour your closets, boxes and charity shops for any warm winter outerwear (toques, scarves, neck warmers, mittens, gloves, ear muffs) in good condition. Please wash before bringing in. New outwear items of these kinds are also welcome. Please do not bring in other items. Place items in the labelled box at the back of the church starting November 1.

Contact Outreach Chair Julia Lipinska at lipinskaj@rocketmail.com with any questions.

Low-carbon Potluck Dinner: Low-carbon Potluck Dinner 6:00 PM, 14 November - Join the St. Matthews Creation Matters group to share your best recipes for sustainable eats. Our guest speaker will be Ryan Fleming, son of Debra and Marc Fleming and a PhD student in political science at U of T. Ryan is featured in a recent Radio Canada report on the challenges faced by First Nations secondary school students in Ontario

Special Outreach request - Winter coats and boots: Do you have an adult-sized warm and practical winter coat, or winter boots that you will be replacing this fall? They can be used by someone else who needs them! Before bringing them to church, please contact Julia Lipinska at lipinskaj@rocketmail.com or via the church office. Thank you.

Creation Matters: Be part of the Circular Economy all year not just for October. At St Matthew's you have the opportunity to recycle batteries and light bulbs. There are many other local opportunities including: 1) Facebook communities have Buy Nothing groups linked to neighbourhoods such as the Glebe and Westboro. Members of the groups post things they no longer need and people who could use them ask to be considered for the gifting of items. 2) Sell online in Ottawa, using local peer-to-peer apps like Facebook Marketplace and Kijiji Ottawa. 3) Use the Tool Lending Library that operates through the Ottawa Public Library. 4) Repair Cafes help people restore life to appliances that no longer work. 5)To get single use plastics reduced, Re-Use Ottawa is getting major grocers (like Metro, Sobeys, Farm Boy, and Walmart) and local eateries to utilize a closed-loop container system to eliminate single-use plastics. 6) Look for the City of Ottawa's Reuse Directory being developed to scale the circular network.

John Main OSB: St. Matthew's Christian Meditation group meets weekly on Wednesdays at 11 AM via Zoom. For the next few weeks we are returning to the teachings of our founder with the series of talks entitled *One with Christ through Jesus. For more information about the group, and to receive the Zoom link, please call Sue Rayner at 613-558-7899 or email m.s.rayner@sympatico.ca.
