OPPORTUNITIES FOR NEW ONLINE DONERS—

You can set up a recurring donation easily via our new platform through Flocknote.

<https://sthenryfamily.flocknote.com/give>

Here's how...

- Sign in or set up a Flocknote account
- Go to Giving Page
- Scroll and select Recurring Gifts
- Establish your worry free donation

Payment Method	Processing Fee	Example: $100 Gift
Bank Transfer (ACH)	1.1% + $0.30	You pay $101.40
Credit/Debit Card	2.9% + $0.30	You pay $103.20

You can also use Direct Bank Transfers

- ACH Payments or Automatic Bill Pay
- Contact Josh to be added to our ACH list through St. Henry Bank or contact your bank to create an automatic bill payment.

WAIT, THERE'S A FEE?

Regardless of how you give, there is a cost associated with it. For example, the traditional means of giving is through envelopes. The parish covers the cost of these envelopes in order to keep them as an option for parishioners who utilize them. Another way to give, direct bank transfers (ACH payment directly from your bank) must be identified, reconciled and recorded. The parish pays for that work to be done.

Like envelopes and ACH payments, Flocknote Giving has a cost as well. The difference is it is assessed at the moment you make the donation. When you set up a donation you have the option to cover the fee. If you choose to cover the fee you are ensuring the parish receives the full amount of your intended gift. If you would rather not, that's okay! The value that Flocknote brings to the parish is worth the expense.

WHAT IS SACRIFICIAL GIVING?—

The answer might seem obvious, but it's good to revisit this question occasionally. Sacrificial giving is an act of faith. Let that sink in. When you offer your wealth to God through His Church, you entrust something valuable to Him. The key word there is entrust. This implies Faith.

The Sacred Liturgy is the source and summit of our Faith, and everything we do is ultimately ordered towards it. We contribute from our resources to assist in the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Most Holy Eucharist. We maintain and beautify our churches. We support ministers and staff. We serve the mission of evangelization, support the poor, and provide for the needs of the local and universal Church. Giving to the Church is an act of service to Jesus, Who receives what we give (from what He has given!) for the salvation and sanctification of the world. We become instruments in His hand when we give generously, trusting that He will not be outdone in generosity.

CONSISTENCY IS THE KEY—

Sometimes we forget to bring collection money with us to Mass. A good solution for our inconsistency is to set up a recurring gift to the parish. Recurring gifts are reliable. Recurring gifts can always be adjusted based on your circumstances. Recurring gifts allow you to make stewardship a central part of your life.
