The Shroud of Turin is a blood stained linen cloth that bears the faint image of a crucified man believed by many to be Jesus of Nazareth. It is one of the most scientifically studied archaeological artifacts in the world, yet modern science cannot explain how the mysterious image on the Shroud was formed.

You are invited into contemplation of the mysteries of the Holy Shroud as revealed by science, history, art, and Scripture.

Tuesday, June 23 at 7:30pm
St. Augustine Church
1400 Miller Rd, Coral Gables, FL

Fr. Andrew Dalton, LC, is a Catholic priest of the Legionaries of Christ and a pontifical university professor of the Synoptic Gospels and Biblical Greek and Hebrew. He is also a well-known international speaker on the Shroud of Turin, having delivered lectures at World Youth Day and SEEK conferences.
