Our Story...

Local Owners Ray Sieradzki and Paul Gibbs are redefining traditional Tex-Mex cuisine with their newest venture, Twisted Taco Express. What began as a single, full-service restaurant in Midtown-Atlanta with an emphasis on good food and fresh ingredients has blossomed into a national college campus presence. Now, they're happy to introduce their third concept, built on the classic tacos-first menu and quality fan favorites.

EAT FRESH. EAT FAST. LET'S GET TWISTED!
